

NO ANSWER IS MADE TO WILSON'S DEMAND BY HUERTA AS YET

REPORT PRESIDENT HAS SAID
PRESENT MEXICAN HEAD
MUST ADICATE POWER.

GENERAL DENIAL FILED

That Such Demand Has Ever Been Officially Handed to Mexican President—Other Late
News of Situation.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Mexico City, Nov. 4.—There was no indication here today that Provisional President Huerta has yet delivered any reply to the communication from the United States telling him he must resign the presidency on loss of time and that he must not leave as his successor any of his adherents whom he might be able to control.

Officially Denied.
In official quarters here as well as in the United States embassy denials were still made today as to the transmission of the communication from the American government.

A meeting of the Mexican cabinet, however, was called for today at which it appeared probable that the matter would come up for discussion.

O'Shaughnessy's Statement.
The only reference to the incident in the local papers today was that which occurred in Associated Press dispatches from Washington. These, when shown to Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American charge, he said, brought out a denial more or less technical which was published here in connection with the dispatches.

Washington is waiting.
Washington, Nov. 4.—President Wilson left the Mexican situation simmer a few hours today while he went to Princeton, N. J., to vote. The tension over this government's ultimatum to Huerta was not relieved by the president's absence, however, and just before Mr. Wilson left the White House he conferred with Secretary Bryan.

All officials here were consistently silent over the notice to Huerta to vacate the provisional presidency of Mexico and to accept the American ultimatum. The attitude here is to make no announcement just now and await the next step.

The greatest interest centered about Huerta's conference with the Mexican City diplomatic corps. As Charles O'Shaughnessy had delivered the latest note, Huerta called in the diplomats, but no announcement was made of their conference.

President Wilson seemed to be in touch with the situation practically every hour he is away today and returns to Washington tonight. The president left here at ten o'clock this morning expecting to arrive at Princeton at 2:30 p.m., but he was delayed by a heavy fog and did not arrive back in the capital at 9:25 to-night.

Absolute Silence.
Administration officials directly connected with the Mexican negotiations have adopted a policy of absolute silence, considering it inexpedient at this time to define exactly the course of action being pursued and declining to comment on any way or the other on the reports from Mexico City regarding the presentation of a summary note to Huerta requiring his immediate resignation.

Huerta's Elimination.
That this elimination of Huerta is a "sine qua non" of the administration policy, but beyond this the successive steps taken or contemplated are not disclosed.

Vessels to Remain.
Secretary of the Navy Daniels reiterated today that the battleships of the second division of the Atlantic fleet will remain in Mexican gulf waters for further orders notwithstanding that four battleships of the third division are due at Vera Cruz and Tampico tomorrow.

Colonists Are Safe.
Sixty French colonists near Santa Rosalia on the west coast of Mexico reported in danger, are now safely gathered at the seaport where they may be protected by the American warships patrolling the coast.

Bryan is Silent.
Later today Secretary Bryan issued a statement. He declined to discuss the use of the word "ultimatum," "note" or "advice," saying he had no more to say than the statement itself conveyed.

Ready to Move.
Chicago, Nov. 4.—Acting under orders issued by the war department at Washington several days ago, four troops of the 15th United States cavalry are preparing to leave Fort Sheridan for El Paso, Texas, Friday, November 7.

The troops and equipment will travel in special trains over the Chicago and Northwestern road from Fort Sheridan to Chicago and over the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific line from Chicago to El Paso, Texas.

Must Stand Firm.
Berlin, Germany, Nov. 4.—"The policy of President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan in Mexico has resulted as was to be expected," says the Tazzeitel today in commenting on the Mexican situation, "and has left the United States with no alternative except to employ force or to back down ingloriously."

FIFTEEN MOTOR CARS
CONTINUE LONG TOUR

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Yuma, Ariz., Nov. 4.—In the order of the arrival last night fifteen of the twenty-three motor cars that started the 574 mile race from Los Angeles to Phoenix were sent away this morning on the last 206 miles of the journey.

Olin Davis was first off at 5:35 o'clock, confident that before noon he would have rounded into the finish at the Phoenix fair grounds. Charles Soules started second, Barney Oldfield lost twenty minutes at the control, but declared he would catch up. The fourth out was J. C. Rice.

TRAIN STRIKES AUTO;
DRIVER ESCAPES UNHURT

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Neena, Nov. 4.—Dr. A. B. Jensen of Neena, attempted to guide his automobile ahead of a passenger train at the C. & N. W. crossing on Water street when the engine struck the auto. The doctor guided his machine into the gutter and escaped injury.

LAUNDRY MEN TO ASSIST REDUCE COST OF LIVING

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
New Orleans, La., Nov. 4.—Plans whereby laundrymen can do their part in decreasing the cost of living were discussed today at the National Laundrymen's Association convention, which met here for a four days session. After the session a number of the delegates will leave for Panama, where they will spend three days taking in the sights of the isthmus.

ROOSEVELT IN URUGUAY
GETS ROYAL WELCOME

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Montevideo, Uruguay, Nov. 4.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt arrived here today and was met by the Uruguayan minister of foreign affairs, the members of the foreign diplomatic corps and representatives of the leading educational bodies and clubs of Montevideo.

VENICE, ILL., BANKER
HEAVY LOSER IN ROBBERY

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Venice, Ill., Nov. 4.—Fred Kohl, president of a bank at Granite City, today mourned the loss of $15,000 worth of jewelry and $40,000 in securities which were stolen last evening from upper rooms while the family was out.

Bloodhounds tracked the robbers to Madison, Ill., where the trail was lost.

ROOSEVELT IN URUGUAY
GETS ROYAL WELCOME

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Montevideo, Uruguay, Nov. 4.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt arrived here today and was met by the Uruguayan minister of foreign affairs, the members of the foreign diplomatic corps and representatives of the leading educational bodies and clubs of Montevideo.

TO MAKE NO RADICAL CHANGE IN BUSINESS

Commissioner of Corporations Joseph E. Davies Announces that There Will be No Disturbances.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., Nov. 4.—The business managers of the country are not going to be radically disturbed. There should be, and must be, no fear on that score. We are going to proceed carefully, and those who make any changes in the mechanism are going to be men who are familiar with the mechanism.

This statement represents to a degree the policy of the federal government in dealing with big business, according to Joseph E. Davies, of this city, who holds the federal position of commissioner of corporations. The statement is made in the November issue of the National monthly, a democratic organ of New York, and a copy of the statement is made public here simultaneously.

Davies discussed the wonderful development of corporations within the past few years.

"Within the last decade and a half, two hundred corporations have grown to such size that they own in assets $22,500,000,000," continues Mr. Davies' statement. "That means that two hundred corporations, one thousand of one per cent of the total population of this country own three times as much property as the total wealth of this country amounted to ten years prior to that civil war. They own as much property as three and one-half times the total interest bearing debt of the United States. One single corporation has a gross income equal to the total revenues of the government from internal revenues and customs. Twenty-four corporations gross income the federal government. One corporation employs 213,000 men; which is more than the total voting population of New Hampshire, South Carolina, North Dakota and South Dakota combined. One corporation employs 33,000 single men; which is more than the total male population of the state of Nevada, and still another corporation, an artificial person created by law, employs more men than there are males in the sovereign state of Nevada."

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

Mr. Davies then discusses the proposition of governmental control, citing the statement of President Van Buren in 1837, in which he said, "The larger the power of production the more economically you can produce. He shows that laws defect economic conditions, citing the law of primogeniture in England, which gives the property to the eldest son, and says that this legislation has retarded land-lordism and monopoly. He does not outline the solution, but says that the gathering of facts may indicate the way to proceed.

ELECTIONS ARE HELD IN SEVERAL STATES

New York Situation is the Most Interesting—New Jersey Voting Also—Illinois Women Vote.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
New York, Nov. 4.—William Sulzer, deposed governor, accompanied by a body guard today, made an early tour of the sixth assembly district from which he seeks election to the state assembly on the progressive ticket. He visited nearly all of the polling places and at most of them was greeted with cheers. A heavy vote was being cast.

Although the forenoon there were disturbances at polling places in various parts of the city owing to the challenging of votes.

Illinois Women Busy.
Chicago, Nov. 4.—Women voters today took a prominent part in "wet and dry" elections in twenty-four Illinois cities and towns. Results in several of the localities are said to hinge upon the strength of the recently franchised voters.

Church services at which prayers were offered for the success of the "dry" movement, were held by the women in Duquoin district which includes the city of Duquoin, Ill., and Stanford. Many women were among the early voters in all of the twenty-four cities.

Light Vote in Jersey.
Trenton, Nov. 4.—Voting for governor and members of the general assembly was brisk in some parts of New Jersey for an hour or two after the polls opened, but in the greater part of the state it was light. The weather was fair and warm.

Reports from different parts of the state in the early afternoon showed heavy voting considering the light registration.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

At Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 4.—The voting was not very heavy in the early hours of Philadelphia's city election, but a heavy pack was loaded for toward the close of the balloting.

SHIP HITS ICEBERG; COMES NEAR SINKING

Freighter Arrives in St. John's Harbor With Bow Badly Wrecked Following Collision Sunday.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
St. John, Newfoundland, Nov. 10.—The Purseas freighter, Manchester Commerce, dragged her way into the harbor here today, her bow a mass of crumpled wreckage and her pumps racing madly to defeat the flood of water which poured in through the shattered hull.

The steamer, which carries no wireless apparatus, crashed head-on into a giant iceberg at two o'clock Sunday morning, while about 100 miles east of Belle Isle.

Crash in Darkness.
The night was very dark and the berg loomed out of the blackness so suddenly that there was no time to change the course of the steamer which swept at full speed into the mountain of ice. The force of the impact was terrific. The steel prow of the liner was crumpled up like a piece of tin, as soft as the collision with the berg. The deck was covered with huge fragments of broken ice and wreckage.

Captain Couch made a hasty survey of the damage and headed his ship for St. John's. He succeeded in notifying his agents at Montreal by means of flag signals.

Water Pours Into Hold.
The sea was swept by a heavy storm and the steamer had a hard time making port. Torrents of water poured into the hold through the shattered bow. The pumps, although constantly in operation, could scarcely hold their own. The ship reached St. John's in a sinking condition. She was the worst wreck that ever entered the harbor. Repairs will require about two months.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, above which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and food stuffs were on the deck above. The crew consists of forty officers and men. She is built of iron and registers 5,363 tons gross.

THEY salute you at the opening of the season.

They win you by their charm and appearance and by their proven high character under the stress of testing.

The leathers are chosen with as great care as you would choose them if you had before you the tanneries of the world.

The workmanship is an exhibition of the finest art of skilled workers, whose hands daily shape fine gloves for the hands of others.

For real, honest, upright and downright good service, ask us for D. & P. Gloves when you come to buy.

Prices: $1.50; $2.00; $2.50 and more the pair.

D. J. LUBY & CO.

Stanley D. Tallman

LAWYER

and U. S. Court Commissioner.
13 W. Milwaukee St., Janesville.

Now is a good time to secure photographs for Christmas gifts.

MOTL STUDIO

115 West Milwaukee St.

SUIT CASES

at $1.15 to $5.50 each.
Traveling bags at $1.90 to $5.50 each

HALL & HUEBEL

Popular with all—our

Club Breakfast

5 to 11 A. M.
20c and 25c.

Savoy Cafe

The kind mother used to serve.

Where you meet your friends

Before disposing of your

JUNK

Ring Bell 459, Rock Co. 798 Black.
By dealing with me direct you will get full value and prompt attention. We are in the market for all kinds of Hides and Furs for which we are paying the highest market prices.

Don't Be Sick Longer

LET "THE CHIROPRACTOR" DESTROY THE ILLUSION THAT YOU CAN'T GET WELL.

Chiropractic goes directly at the cause of disease (spinal subluxation) and removes it. Isn't it logical to suppose that with the cause of the disease removed that there can then be no disease? Chiropractic is as sure and certain in its results as is the fact that the world is round. You can not dispute the evidence that I have on file in my office showing that hundreds of people in Rock County have been made well through my Chiropractic Adjustments, cases that had been given up by medical men and that had become addicted to the medicine bottle habit.

SICK HEADACHE AND STOMACH TROUBLE.

Notice the illustration accompanying this advertisement. It shows how the spinal column looks when a person has stomach trouble and severe sick headaches. The spinal bones are out of line and cause undue pressure on the nerves that supply the stomach with nerve force. This pressure exerted for a time and causing a lack of supply of nerve force brings about a weakened stomach and severe headaches. Remove the unnecessary pressure and you remove the cause of the trouble. Chiropractic is merely the eliminating of this nerve pressure. And Chiropractic gets results.

Don't give up hope. Come to my office and let me tell you what I can do for you. An interview costs you nothing and places you under no obligations. Don't wait another day. Come tomorrow.

J. N. IMLAY

"THE CHIROPRACTOR"

LADY ASSISTANT—A competent lady assistant always at the office. Calls made to any part of city or county. 405 Jackson Block, New Phone 970. Hours: 10:30 A. M. to 12 P. M.; 2 P. M. to 6 P. M.; 7 to 8 P. M. Established in Janesville, 1910.

If you have a stove to sell now is the time to let people know it through a classified ad.

DOCTOR'S OPINION NEW MARRIAGE LAW

Several Weak Points Seen in New Statute Although It Is a Step in the Right Direction.

A physician who believes that the new marriage law passed by the last Wisconsin legislature is incomplete and weak in some points but, nevertheless, a step in the right direction, gives the following statement:

"I realize that restrictions and regulation in regard to wedlock are essential for the upbuilding of our nation. Our nation, like other nations, is degenerating, the etiology of which is many fold. However, one of the cardinal factors is that men and women are permitted to marry without any restrictions as to social or physical condition.

"The present law of Wisconsin applies to the male sex only. In this respect the law is ineffective, as the female is the real seat of infection or incubator in some of the most objectionable diseases to wedlock. In such cases the offspring would suffer such as blindness, deafness, dumbness or other deformities. Even had the law applied to both sexes, requiring that they present a certificate setting forth the fact that they are free from those objectionable diseases, it would then be ineffective inasmuch as the physician is allowed a maximum fee of $3 only. This would result in an incomplete examination. In order to make the examination complete and effective at least two microscopic examinations would be necessary.

"By reason of the above facts the present marriage law is ineffective.

"Education is the one great power of prophylaxis. It will not, however, stamp out diseases at once; but when the public becomes more familiar with the etiology (cause) of disease and prophylaxis (prevention) of same also with a perfect comprehension of personal, individual and public hygiene, it will then know where the fire is, so to speak, and will avoid getting burned.

"Many of these horrible diseases could and would be prevented if the public had a true conception of the cause and prevention of diseases. It would be at the same time saving many lives, much suffering and money.

"Right here perhaps it would be well to suggest that in order to obtain the required knowledge a short course be established for the purpose of instructing girls and boys in personal, individual and public hygiene, also in the cause and prevention of diseases, etc., from a medical standpoint. Such an education would be the best prophylactic of degeneration."

BEGIN REGULAR TERM COUNTY COURT TODAY

Forty-four Cases on Calendar—
Claims and Accounts Com—prise Most of Business.

Forty-four cases are on the calendar for the regular November term of the county court for Rock county which was opened today. Claims and accounts constitute the bulk of the business, there being seventeen of the former, and twelve of the latter. The various cases to come up are as follows:

Proof of Wills—George Bennett, John J. Nelson, Charles Bloedorn. Administration—John Queeney, James Toynott, Bridget Donahoe. Claims—Peter S. Bennett, Bertram F. Ackley, Henry Klinghoffer, Philo Gilbert, Bridget Delaney, William Horne, John Brunzell, John C. Stanton, Charles Beley, Jane Kendall, Robert M. Turner, Mary Mathias, George S. Barker, William W. Maltry, C. H. Woodbury, Mary C. Brown. Accounts—Preserved Albee, Thomas Jones, Ira S. Harvey, Peter C. Olstad, J. P. Towne, Maggie Withers, Sarah S. Rabbitt, Theodore Haase, Walter Taylor, Jennina C. Russell, Olaf Larson, Eliza Wells.

Citation—Frank Walker, Catherine Gray. Guardian's Account—W. H. Hall. Adoption—Edna Marie Ferger. Guardianship—Louis Youmans, Hannah T. C. Smith.

Inheritance Tax—J. P. Towne, Henry Marsden.

Petition to Amend Records—David McCullough.

MEN'S CLUB ENJOYS A STRONG ADDRESS

Rev. E. C. Coon of Evansville Talks at Opening Meeting of Presbyterian Brotherhood.

The Reverend E. C. Coon, pastor of the Methodist church at Evansville, gave the address at the opening meeting of the season of the Presbyterian Brotherhood at the church dining hall last evening. Taking from his subject "The Relation of the Pews to the Pulpit," Mr. Coon gave a discourse bristling with sound and practical ideas on church matters and liberally punctuated with a special brand of vigorous and wholesome humor.

The address was described by the men who heard it as one of the finest that has ever been delivered to the brotherhood and was most thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Coon impressed on his audience the necessity of every man who was in any way connected with the church taking active and helpful part in the life of the church, in order that the church may attain its fullest degree of service to the community. He severely deprecated the languid, do-it-care attitude which was too often in evidence among the male members of the congregation. Mr. Coon is a man of oratorical power and his facility in punctuation and carried weight.

The committee in charge of the brotherhood programs for the coming season is composed of the officers of the club. S. B. Hendricks, Dr. George Little, B. C. Jackson and Oscar Athon. It was at the suggestion of Dr. W. W. Laughlin that the committee secured Rev. Coon as the first speaker of the year.

Daily Special.

It is better to wear out than to rust out.

GEORGE SACKETT WEDS MISS SARAH PADDEN IN CHICAGO

Former Well Known Rockford Newspaper and Theatrical Man Married Friday Last.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Sarah Padden, the talented young actress who has appeared on the stage at the Myers Theatre, to George Sackett, a former Rockford newspaper man and later manager of the Rockford theatre, in Chicago last Friday, is made. Mr. Sackett has many friends in Janesville, who will be pleased to learn of his having joined the ranks of Benedict.

VENUS MOST SHY IN THE NOVEMBER SKY

However Saturn and Mars Are Out in All Their Glory and Most Resplendent.

According to astronomical data all of the bright planets are assembled in the evening sky during November except Venus. Mercury reaches greatest elongation east tomorrow and may be seen early in the month in the late twilight low to the south-east. It is the shyest of the planets.

On November 22, the planet passes through inferior conjunction. Jupiter is still a bright object, low in the southwestern sky, but sets early by the close of the month. Saturn and Mars are the best planets now for observation. The former crosses the meridian at a high altitude not long after midnight and is easily found by looking about ten degrees to the northeast of the bright red star Aldebaran and the Hyades. Mars crosses the Meridian nearly three hours later at a little higher altitude. The planet is distinguished by its rusty line amongst the stars. Especially with reference to the line joining Castor and Pollux, Venus is still the bright morning star and is seen at dawn above the southeastern horizon.

The times of sunrise and sunset for the month are:

Sunrise—November 1, 6:32; November 11, 6:45; November 21, 6:57; November 31, 7:8.

Sunset—November 1, 4:50; November 11, 4:38; November 21, 4:29; November 31, 4:24.

The times of the moon's phases are: First quarter November 5, 12:34 p. m.; full moon November 13, 6 p. m.; last quarter November 21, 1:56 a. m.; new moon November 27, 7:41 p. m.

The principal fixed stars visible during the month in the evening hours are: To the west, Vega and Altair; near the meridian, Fomalhaut; to the east, Aldebaran, the Pleiades and Capella.

CROWD TURNED AWAY FROM BESSEY SHOW

Stock Company at Myers Theatre Plays to Capacity House.

Jammed to the doors and over three hundreds people turned away unable to get seats, was the announcement from the box office of the Myers Theatre last night long before lines over the performance to start. The attraction was the Jack Bessey company presenting a four-act melodrama, "The Woman in Question." The play was well acted and well staged by the best company Jack Bessey has ever brought here. The beautiful gowns worn by the ladies in the company were a strong feature of the performance, being unusually attractive and stylish.

Tonight the company will be seen in a three-act western comedy drama, "At Circle 9 Ranch." There will be special matinees Saturday and Sunday. The management have introduced quite an innovation this week, showing pictures before the regular performance and also between the acts, making two shows for the one price of admission. The first reel of pictures starts at eight o'clock.

LINK AND PIN

Chicago & Northwestern R. y.

Three engines arrived in the city today from the Chicago shops. They are numbers 1123, 762 and 881, and will be used on the Northern Wisconsin division at once.

T. J. Stocks, general foreman at the local roundhouse, was in Chicago today on business.

Engines 586 and 82 have been sent to Chicago for repairs.

Joe Smith reports a considerable profit from the dance last Friday night. Over one hundred and fifty couples were in attendance.

The first section of the Ringling Brothers circus passed through the city this afternoon at one o'clock. The other section arrived later, during the course of the afternoon. The trains left shortly after their arrival for Daraboo to their winter quarters.

About twenty cars are on the repair tracks waiting for new parts.

Frank Hennessey was in Belvidere today assisting a new storekeeper at that place.

LEYDEN

Leyden, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Arthur Churchill was a Janesville shopper on Wednesday.

J. E. Hemming was a Janesville caller Friday.

Miss Alice Copeland spent the week end at her home in Evansville.

Mrs. Glenn Spear were Janesville shoppers Thursday.

J. E. Hemming and Leo Tobin are home after a hunting trip to Koshkonong.

LAZY LIVER, CONSTIPATION, HEADACHY, IF DIZZY OR STOMACH SOUR—DIME A BOX

Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, constipation, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out to-night with Cascarets.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and sweeten your stomach; remove the sour, indigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and constipation poison from the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box keeps your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and you feel bully for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
10 CENT BOXES—ANY DRUG STORE
—ALSO 25 & 50 CENT BOXES—
WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

BEST CIGAR ON THE MARKET

Prize Seal 5c and Commercial Club 10c. Sold by all Dealers.

Manufactured only by

J. J. WATKINS,

Janesville, Wis. New phone 943 Red.

Wilson Lane of Janesville was a caller at the creamery on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Churchill attended a party in Janesville Saturday night.

Paul Handke of Porter was a Leyden caller Saturday night.

Miss Mattie Churchill attended the dance at Kopke's on Saturday night.

CIRCUIT COURT JURY IS TAKEN TO MILTON

Viewed Premises This Morning Involved in Personal Injury Suit of Gage Versus Milton.

Judge George Givins and the jury drawn yesterday afternoon in the case of James P. Gage versus the town of Milton, a personal injury damage suit growing out of an alleged defect in a roadway, went to Milton late this morning to view the premises in question. They were accompanied by Sheriff C. S. Whipple, Charles E. Pierce, attorney for the plaintiff, and M. O. Mount of Jeffries, Orestreich and Avery, counsel for the defendant. The taking of evidence was begun at two o'clock this afternoon. Those who are serving as jurors in the action are J. J. Riordan, Charles E. Curtis, B. Gabriel, C. P. Lathers, P. R. Cheney, George P. Haynes, John Eggen, Arthur Church, W. F. Schuman, R. G. Scheibel, A. G. Russell, and William Murray.

Settlements out of court have been effected in the cases of the Chicago Copy company vs. Recorder Printing company, E. W. Lowell vs. Peter Kennedy, Charles Mable vs. P. J. Guynup, William G. Thom vs. Frank C. Bloedel, George Keylock vs. Burr O'Leary, Annie S. Hall vs. Michael J. Hall. Jury trials have been waived in the cases of Otto Romey vs. Rock County Sugar company, and M. F. Barringer vs. Rock County Sugar company. The cases of J. A. Rheim vs. T. P. Burns, and State of Wisconsin vs. Arthur Richardson have been continued for trial by consent.

BRODHEAD

Brodhead, Nov. 4.—Brodhead friends will be pleased to learn of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts at San Diego, California.

Mrs. Roberts will be remembered as Miss Ida Snook.

Ed E. B. was here over Sunday from Menominee, Wis., the guest of his daughter, Mrs. C. R. Murdock.

Walter Hamilton left Monday for Chicago, where he will be the guest of his brother, Dr. G. W. Hamilton, and others for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Parnsworth were here from Albany Monday. They were on their way to Milwaukee, which city they expect to make their future home.

W. E. Dunbar of Aurora, Illinois, was a guest at the home of his father-in-law, Nathan Bruce, left Monday morning for his home.

Mrs. P. L. Dedrick left for Chicago Monday morning, where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Dunwiddie and family.

Miss Tressa Pfisterer left Monday morning for Madison for a few days' visit.

Edna Buraglow of Monroe visited in Brodhead Monday.

County Clerk J. W. Stewart and Income Tax Assessor I. M. Stauffer of Monroe were in Brodhead Monday on official business.

Dr. M. J. Newman joined his family here for an over Sunday with relatives, returning to Menominee on Monday.

Roger Skinner of Chicago arrived here from Madison Monday for a brief stay, having been at Madison over Sunday.

There will be a union church service next Sunday evening in the M. church. Rev. J. Lloyd Smith of the Congregational church will preach.

Mrs. Grace Mayoux went to Hanover Monday to visit her sister, Mrs. John Emerson, and family.

Auctioneer Peter T. Moore goes to Watertown, South Dakota, this afternoon, where he will conduct an auction sale for Corson Emerson, J. N. Cunningham will accompany him. Corson Cunningham has sold his farm near Watertown.

Mrs. Allie Thomas of Toriopoli, Nevada, who is in Morey hospital at Janesville, is convalescing nicely. Mr. Thomas has arrived and is with her.

OBITUARY

Waldo Curtis Olson.

Waldo Curtis, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Olson, 608 Lincolnton street, died at 7:30 o'clock last night, after having been sick for two weeks. The baby was three months and twenty-two days old. Funeral services will be held at the home at two o'clock tomorrow afternoon, the Rev. J. C. Hazer, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. Interment will be made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Franklin M. Francis.

Funeral services for the late Franklin M. Francis, who was shot on Sunday afternoon, accidentally, while hunting with a companion, will be held from the home of his uncle, P. H. Francis, 608 Milwaukee avenue, Wednesday afternoon at two-thirty.

What Next?

A "hotel" for canaries, built by a Berliner, has elevators, electric lights, winter garden and fountain.

ECZEMA ITCHED TERRIBLY ON HANDS

White Little Spots. Scratching Made Them Worse. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

1201 Marion Place, Chicago, Ill.—"I had eczema for four or five years. One day I came into the house and saw some white little spots coming out on my hands. A week later I saw that the spots began opening and in their places came deep holes. Later it took the form of some red little spots. Those spots itched so terribly and every night when I was asleep I always used to scratch and make the spots worse and made some new spots. The trouble caused loss of sleep. My hands cost my father a fortune.

"I used remedies for three and one-half years but they made me worse. I used —, which helped a little bit, but in a day or two it got worse; also —. Later on I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment two times a day, in the morning and at night before going to sleep. Cuticura Soap and Ointment afforded relief in one or two weeks, and it only took two months before the cure was complete." (Signed) Clement Levinson, Nov. 22, 1912.

Although the Cuticura Soap and Ointment are most successful in the treatment of affections of the skin, scalp, hair and hands, they are also most valuable for everyday use in the toilet, bath and nursery, because they promote and maintain the health of the skin and hair from infancy to age. Sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Division Street Paving is Nearing Completion

Brown and Connors have nearly completed the asphalt macadam pavement on South Division street between St. Lawrence and Oakland avenues, and their subcontractor, G. D. Cannon, will have the cement filler for the brick pavement on the same street between East Milwaukee street and Court street all poured and broomed in tomorrow night. The appearance of the street has been greatly improved.

When you want baggage buy it at the

BAGGAGE STORE

You can select from a large line of quality hand bags, quality suit cases and quality trunks.

Janesville Hide & Leather Co.

222 West Milwaukee Street.

We Have On Hand and Ready to Serve You

"Dustless Coal"

$9.50 Per Ton Delivered

Hardwood Clippings

Delivered for $2.50 Per Load

And Everything in Building Material

Fifield Lumber Co.,

Both Phones 109

SUGGESTING---

Now is the Time--THIS WEEK

To order your

Thanksgiving Clothes

FORD'S is the Place

Your Suit is here—"home made"—at your price.

Come and See

Our Special

Showing of Furs

TOMORROW

A Beautiful Russian

Pony Coat, style like cut, 45 in. long, Skinner's

Satin lined, cham-

ois pocket shields, guaranteed dye, very special at $25.00.

WATCH US GROW.

POND and BAILEY

Janesville's Finest Shopping Center

23-25 W. Milwaukee Street

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

WATCH US GROW.

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-204 E. Milwaukee St.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE, WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENING.

WEATHER FORECAST

For Janesville and vicinity: Fair and warmer tonight and Wednesday.

INTIMIDATING CAPITAL.

It is not surprising to hear that the Investment Bankers' association has resolved to test the constitutionality of every clause of the income tax provisions grafted upon the tariff law. An income tax is a good one in principle, and this one might justly have been imposed upon every voter, irrespective of the amount of income. But the administrative provisions of this tax seem designed to cause the greatest possible amount of annoyance and injustice out of sheer ignorance.

Apparently, the idea is that anybody who has anything is fair prey, and may be exploited in the confident assumption that the votes of those who have nothing will protect the legislators who pass such laws. A much heavier tax is collected in England, but it is only collected once, and the highly objectionable inquisitorial features are left out without loss of revenue to the state.

It has been shown in these columns that the tax will be paid, thanks to the provision for "collection at the source," as often as four times over on certain incomes. Many bonds have been issued in recent years, of which the indenture expressly guarantees the lender against such a tax. The corporation, however, is required to pay tax on all its income, and the bank which receives the coupons for collection is also required to deduct the tax. This iniquitous arrangement will work peculiar hardship upon widows and others of small means whose income is derived from such investments.

This burden is peculiarly hard where the income is only a small one, and is legally exempt. A woman receiving some $2,000 a year from tax exempt bonds loses $10 each half year which she may recover, by a process of red tape and actual expense for affidavits and lawyer's fees, more than equaling the amount of which she is robbed, and she has, moreover, to go through this prohibitory process of recovery every time she collects her income. Congress has once more legislated an incalculable amount of costly litigation where the burden will fall on those least able to bear it.

There is just one ray of hope. It is sure that congress will always spend every cent it can collect by any device. It will be necessary, therefore, continually to reduce the minimum of exemption, so as to extend the burden and increase the returns. Only the smallest knowledge of the history of legislation is needed to foretell that the minimum will be below the English figure of $500 within the lifetime of this administration and the next.

What the courts may say about the measure, which the United States treasury itself does not understand, cannot be foretold, but the sooner interpretations are sought the better it will be for the interest of public honesty.

A leading financial journal thus discusses the income tax, the provisions of which have already proved a conundrum to banks and large corporations. The fact that this tax will be paid by less than half a million of the taxpayers, makes it popular with the masses, but that is no reason why the law should not deal fairly and justly with the men who are burdened by its provisions.

Capital has been denounced so long and so vigorously that the man with money is regarded with suspicion, and more especially so if his money is invested in a corporation.

The income tax, like any other tax, is an item of expense in doing business. It simply increases the cost of production, and becomes a part of the overhead charges, which in the final analysis is paid by the ultimate consumer. Like the tariff, this will be an indirect tax, not quite so easy to detect as thirty-seven cent eggs and fancy priced butter, but it will be there just the same, and it should be. There is no reason why half a million taxpayers should be burdened with a tax which should be shared by thirty million people, and that is what the law provides. This assessment will reach its proper level, in spite of regulations which may seek to prevent it.

The Gazette corn contest is exciting widespread interest, and the results of the boys' work will be a revelation, when made public. They indicate that the corn and Rock county has been simply scraped over and made to produce less than half the possibilities of the soil. Money for an agricultural instructor will be well spent. The boys have had a taste of scientific knowledge and are eager for more.

Today will decide whether Tammany is to rule New York or whether the fusion ticket will win out. It will also be interesting to know whether Sulzer wins out his legislative job in the face of his recent deposition from office at the hands of the political gangsters. Taking it all in all the result of today's election in New York is of nation-wide interest.

Auto owners are failing to observe the state law which requires drivers of cars to stop while passing street cars that are discharging passengers. Sunday afternoon a careless driver almost ran down a little child as it stepped from the Milton avenue car at Main and Milwaukee street and went on his way without slowing up speed.

Chicago has a new chief of police whose first duty is to break up the gangsters that now rule Chicago. His work is all cut out for him and if he succeeds he should be given something more substantial than a Carnegie medal.

Janesville should celebrate the opening of the Milwaukee street bridge when it is finished in a manner befitting the occasion. It is up to some organization to formulate the plans, evidently, and the rest of the citizens to enjoy the celebration.

Dear as he professes to love the soil of Mexico, Felix Diaz does not desire to be planted beneath it and much prefers the deck of a United States man of war and the starry emblem that floats from the mast head.

Colonel Roosevelt is going to cross the Andes in an automobile. There is one guess allowed with each purchase of the premium package. Why will he do it? Take your time and figure it all out.

Ex-Governor Sulzer appears in the role of "Fuzzy Wuzzy" in the New York campaign—a poor benighted heathen but a first-class fighting man. He may break the Tammany square after all.

The Twenty-five Thousand club plans one thing at least. Better street car service for Janesville when the new bridge is completed, and present indications are that they will obtain it.

Does anyone expect that Huerta will do as he is told by Wilson and resign his job and turn the government over to the rebels or anyone that the Wilson-Bryan combination want?

As Mrs. Pankhurst minimizes the distressing effects of militant suffragism it is to be supposed that so far her house has not been burned or any of her plate glass windows broken.

A New Orleans man, getting up in the middle of the night, drank yeast instead of water. He undoubtedly arose at least two hours earlier than usual the next morning.

Daily are the complications of domestic life increasing. An Eastern judge has ruled that husbands and wives have no right to open each other's letters.

Speaker Champ Clark declares he has lost $15,000 by refusing to lecture. But, by the same token, haven't a lot of unwary people been saved $15,000?

A careful perusal of the Massachusetts newspapers leads to the conclusion that four men will be elected governor of that state.

It cost a Boston man $50,000 to call a girl his "bootful baby" in black and white. Looks as if it's about time to try jail sentences.

There are a lot of American and National league players who will either have to pay the income tax or make admission.

It's fairly appalling to think what a superb chief clerk of a board of elections is going to waste in Victoriano Huerta.

SOCIETIES MEET IN REGULAR SESSIONS

Forum and Rusk Lyceum Assemble Last Evening at Their Rooms in High School—Rusk in Humorous Roll Call.

Current topics, sporting notes, and humorous stories, made up in part the program undergone last evening at the regular meetings of the Forum and Rusk Lyceum boys' literary clubs at the high school.

The debate given by the Forum is the identical question which will be given throughout the high schools representing the Beloit College league this winter. Because of its wording, which is somewhat difficult, the contestants had a tendency to dodge the exact meaning, although many good points were presented. Following is the program:

Roll Call, answered by an anecdote, "Account of Wisconsin Minnesota Game," George Spohn.

"What Constitutes a Football Player?" Mark Jones.

"My Experiences With the Hiawatha Boating Wars This Summer," Stuart Moniat.

Debate, Resolved that the literary test is the desirable method of further restricting immigration into the United States. Karl Piek and O'Brien on the affirmative won an unanimous decision over the negative, composed of Malcolm McDevitt and Arthur Welsh.

Stewart Pond was the chairman of the evening.

Rusk Lyceum Program.

The Rusk answered their roll call with the expression, "My first fight." Some very witty remarks were heard from various members. Hyzer claimed that he had not yet experienced his first fight, as he was an advocate of peace. Such clever remarks were given in abundance, which put inspiration into the meeting. The remainder of the program as given is as follows:

Debate, Resolved that, for American cities, municipal ownership of public service corporations is preferable to private ownership. Walter Williams and Hallet Day of the affirmative won a 3 to 0 decision over Leonard Hyzer and Roland Schenk of the negative.

"Last Saturday in Football Circles," Victor Hemming.

Extempore Topic, Maurice Dalton.

The society chose Edward Atwood to lead the Rusk football eleven this fall. The annual Forum-Rusk game will be played within a few weeks, if the captains can agree to dates. Mark Jones leads the Forum eleven.

HEAD STUFFED? GOT A COLD? TRY PAPE'S

"Pape's Cold Compound" relieves worst cold or the gripe in few hours—No quinine used.

Take "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until you have taken three doses, then all gripe, misery goes and your cold will be broken. It promptly opens your clogged-up nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and sniffling. Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound" which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Accept no substitute.

On the Spur of the Moment

The Diary of the Bonehead. I felt like a fighting cock when I left home and went to the street car. I hadn't felt so well since returned from my summer vacation. It had taken me several weeks to get over the effects of my vacation, but since then I had been feeling better every day.

When I got on the car I met Jones, a particular friend of mine. He was a coal business, which, by the way, is a good place to have a friend. Jones looked at me searchingly for a moment and then said:

"Old man, you look pale. You are working too hard and you're a mighty sick man this minute."

I laughed at Jones, but when I got into the elevator of our office building the elevator man remarked:

"How pale you look. It is I were you I'd see a doctor right away. You're going to be sick. What have you been eating lately?"

I laughed at the elevator man's fears and went to my office. You're as pale as a ghost," said my stenographer. "You had better take some treatment. I believe you are all run down."

I laughed at my stenographer and went in to see my business partner. He raised his hand in horror and said, "Go home, man. You're sick. You look white and drawn. What's the matter with you, anyhow?"

This time I didn't laugh. So many persons had noticed my condition that I concluded there must be something in what Jones had told me in the first place. Then I began to feel sick. At 10 o'clock in the morning I was a very sick man and at 11 there was a cold perspiration on my brow. I worried about my condition until I could hardly get down to the doctor's office on the next floor.

"You are a nervous wreck," said the doctor. "You must go to the hospital." The doctor tells me I may be out in a month.

I didn't remember until after I reached the hospital that I had shaved myself that morning and had put the talcum on rather generously. That's why I had been so pale.

Washington Notes. It would take about eighteen years to go through the national museum carefully and scrutinize every object in it. It would take a man like Carnegie or Rockefeller to stay in Washington that long and devote his time to sightseeing and I was able to spend about eighteen minutes on that particular job.

In the museum they have the original star spangle banner just as George Cohan made it. They have George Washington's dress suit and a whale that is seventy-eight feet long. They have the aeroplane, fireless cookers and Greek statuary and all of the medals that were received by Peary for calling Dr. Cook a liar. They have pictures and mementoes of all the American heroes extending from the man who invented the ball bearing suspenders that will still hold fast after one button breaks. They have Abraham Lincoln's plug hat. They have cannon, washing machines, point, lace, swords, pistols, corkscrews, tack, hammer, loving cups, carpet sweepers, germs bacilli, scarlet fever, microbes, postage stamps, can openers, mummies, ancient locomotives that used to shoot sparks out of the smokestacks, water filters, sheet-iron armor hot buttered peanuts, hot roasted popcorn, ice cream cones, Coney Island red-hot and souvenirs. If there is anything that you do not see just call for it and if they do not guess your weight correctly you get your money back.

Everything in the museum is inclosed excepting the whale and the two locomotives. The attendants are very attentive and do not leave you alone very long with even the State of Ohio, city of Toledo, ss.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

FRANK J. CHENEY. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 4th day of December, A. D. 1913.

A. W. GILSON, Notary Public. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Fine Rubber Goods Real Rubber

Guaranteed for 1 and 2 years, but will last a good many more.

Hot Water Bags, 2-qt. size Money Back.....$1.50 American Beauty.....$1.75 Maximum.....$2.00 Others at.....$1 and $1.25 Fountain Syringes 2-qt. size, Money Back.....$1.75 American Beauty.....$2.00 Monogram.....$2.00 Maximum.....$2.50 Others at $1, $1.25 & $1.50

Special offer this week only: We will allow 50c for your old Hot Water Bag or Fountain Syringe to apply on the purchase of a new one.

Smith's Pharmacy The Rexall Store Kodaks and Kodak Supplies 14 West Milwaukee St.

whale or the engines. I have wondered what they would do to a man if they found him putting that whale in his pocket.

ACCEPT RESIGNATION OF FIREMAN BURDICK

Fire and Police Commission at Regular Meeting Last Evening Appointed Charles Schultz Successor.

Acceptance of the resignation from the fire department of Frank Burdick was made at the regular meeting of the Fire and Police Commission, held at the city hall last evening. Burdick had been in the service about five months. Charles Schultz, who resigned last spring and has since been employed as mechanic at the J. A. Strimling garage, was elected to succeed him. A bare majority of the commission was present, those attending being Messrs. Frank Kimball, P. C. Grant, W. S. Jeffris, and Mayor James A. Fathens. Chief of the Fire Department H. C. Klein was at the meeting and conferred with the commission concerning the projected increase in the salaries of firemen. The chief will submit to the commission for its approval a salary schedule. It is probable that the wage of the firemen will be raised from $55 to $70 per month and the captain, who now receives no more than the other firemen, may be given $75 per month. One thousand dollars was appropriated in the recently adopted city budget for the increase of firemen's salaries.

The Vampire

TWO of the world's most famous dancers, Mr. Bert French and Miss Alice Eis, will be seen in the wonderful three-part Kalem production, "THE VAMPIRE," at LYRIC THEATER, on Saturday, November 8. These renowned artists appear in the theater scene of the picture and present their "Vampire Dance," one of the most extraordinary dances ever shown. The story tells of a country boy who falls into the clutches of an adventuress. She drags him down. When at the lowest depths of degradation, he wanders into a music hall and sees Bert French and Alice Eis in their "Vampire Dance." It tells of an ambitious young artist ensnared by the terrible wiles of a human vampire. The artist is overcome and is lured to death. To the country boy, the playlet seems to picture his own life with the adventuress. Rushing from the theater he turns over a new leaf and marries his little country sweetheart.

THE TANGO

AND now we are to learn dancing by motion pictures! A three-reel feature that gives a series of comprehensive dancing lessons has just been produced by KALEM and will be shown at THE LYRIC on Monday, November 10. These lessons, called the "MOTION PICTURE DANCING LESSONS," are given by New York's most famous dancers, Mr. Wallace McCutcheon and Miss Joan Sawyer. This couple was the sensation of the New York Theater Roof Garden last summer, and at the present time are instructors to the members of the famous "400."

The dances taught are the Tango, Turkey Trot and the Hesitation Waltz. As shown in the "MOTION PICTURE DANCING LESSONS," these dances are marvels of beauty and grace. Each is shown step by step, and should aid any person who sees the pictures to become an accomplished dancer.

The Tango, Turkey Trot and Hesitation Waltz are first shown, as danced by the patrons of one of New York's most famous cabarets. Later, Mr. McCutcheon and Miss Sawyer take the floor and show their method. The scene shifts to Mr. McCutcheon's studio, where he is seen teaching several pupils the dances named. To better illustrate the steps, the pictures, at intervals, show just the lower limbs. It is a most unusual feature and well worth seeing.

YOU HAVE HEARD OF US BUT DO YOU KNOW THIS STORE?

Just step in and let us show you what a nice drug store we have. Everything is the best and the price is no higher than the rest. Are you using LADY VAL, the liquid face powder? Ask for a sample. It's different.

RED CROSS PHARMACY

ANSICO CAMERAS. Both Phones.

PHOTO SUPPLIES. 21 W. MILW. ST.

THAT GOLD

Which you regard as a trifle and a passing inconvenience which you will wear out in a few days, is in reality a dangerous thing. He who neglects a cold invites disaster. It is often the beginning of pneumonia or consumption and a number of diseases as any physician will testify. My methods of treatment quickly cure colds and is the most sure method of preventing them.

Q. M. LARSON

109 So. Main.

MECHANO-THERAPIST.

Both Phones.

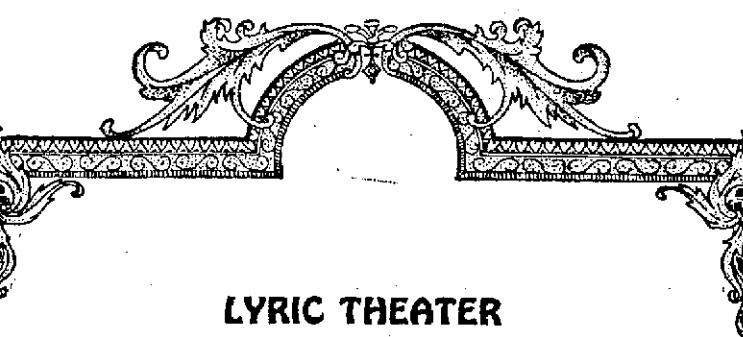

Special Showing of Furs Tomorrow

Minks, Marten, Hudson Seals, Civet Cat, Black Fox, Red Fox, Wolves, Japanese Mink, Moles and all the popular priced furs. Don't miss this showing.

POND AND BAILEY

WATCH US GROW.

LYRIC THEATER

Friday only, Nov. 7

Daniel Frohman presents HENRY E. DIXEY

Supported by Laura Sawyer and House Peters in an original drama of the underworld

"CHELSEA 7750"

Henry E. Dixey is one of the foremost favorites of the American stage. In the role of an eminent, able and conscientious detective, Mr. Dixey is afforded ample opportunity to utilize the fine powers of characterization for which he is noted. The play sounds every depth of the underworld, its secrets, its methods and its emotions, and penetrates the intricate labyrinths of the submerged half. Startling revelations, ingenious machinations, and overwhelming climax crowd fast in thrilling succession; and through it all the mystery and fascination of the world that lives under cover.

Performances at 2:30 and 4, 10c; at 7:30 and 9, 20c for adults and 10c for children.

The third of the Famous Players series, following "Tess" and "In the Bishop's Carriage."

Following this will appear Lillie Langtry in "His Neighbor's Wife," Laura Sawyer in "An Hour Before Dawn," and James K. Hackett in "The Prisoner of Zenda."

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

Your Entire Confidence:

We are very carefully building on the sure foundation of complete satisfaction.

In the beginning we tried to make this a necessary store to you and we know we have succeeded. We planned to give you a store which in all its varied stocks

would fill the entire wants of the entire people at all times—and succeeded. In short we sought to give you a perfect

store and we sincerely believe that we have builded so well that we have your entire confidence—

and that is the thing

we prize most.

Myers Theatre TONIGHT JACK BESSEY

"At Circle C Ranch" Wednesday Night, "A Girl of the Underworld" The following Motion Pictures will be shown tonight in between acts.

The Pursuit of Jane very interesting picture by the Imp Players.

Animated Weekly A picture showing all the up-to-date happenings of the world.

The Last Run of the Old Santa Fe Coach A story of the old border days by the Frontier Co.

His Crazy Job A laughable comedy by the Nestor Players. Matinee Saturday and Sunday. PRICES—Matinee, 10c, 25c; evening, 10c, 20c, 30c; box, 50c.

ROYAL THEATER

The Mutual Service.

TONIGHT

THE DOCTOR'S RUSE A clever photo-play by the Majestic Players.

THE JUDGE'S SON A western drama well worth seeing by the Broncho Co.

MUTUAL WEEKLY This film shows all the latest happenings of today.

Excellent Music ADMISSION 5c

What building material? WAITING ROOM AT GAZETTE OFFICE.

For the convenience of the public the Gazette office is used as a waiting room for the street cars. Seats are provided and you are welcome to make use of the office as you please.

SYMPATHY WILL NEVER CURE A TOOTH ACHE, NEITHER WILL OIL OF CLOVES.

If your teeth are unsound the longer you wait before having them looked after, the greater agony you will have to endure with each successive ache.

Our methods are absolutely painless. Our charges are fair, and workmanship superior.

DR. F. T. RICHARDS
PAINLESS DENTIST
Office Over Hall & Sayles

Money Saved and Put Away Safely

Will protect you from misfortune and prepare you to take advantage of opportunities that will surely come to you.

There is a two-fold benefit from the practice of economy—you develop character and you accumulate capital.

You need the power which comes from saving money and putting it away safely.

3% on savings.

The First National Bank
Established 1855.

Public Notice

Contrary to the story which canvassers for Milwaukee papers are telling the public, the Gazette does not intend to raise its subscription price to 60c per month for its daily edition, nor has it ever had such intention. The Gazette will notify its patrons direct at any time it contemplates a change in its business policy. These mis-statements of irresponsible outsiders are unauthorized and untrue.

GAZETTE PRINTING CO.

APOLLO CLUB MAY CHANGE ITS NAME

President Parker Brings Matter to Attention of Members for Their Consideration.

At the suggestion of the directors of the Apollo club, George S. Parker, president of the club, brought up the matter of a possible change in the name of the organization, before the members at the meeting last evening. The members were asked to consider the proposition with the idea of some definite action at the December meeting.

Although Mr. Parker did not mention any reason for effecting a change in the name of the club, it was generally understood that there had been some ill-feeling aroused by the fact that the vaudeville theatre, opened a year ago, took the same name as this prominent organization of music-lovers. Members of the club have felt that this was an unwarranted presumption and the possibility of some action in regard to it has been seriously contemplated before but, without result. The Apollo club is organized and incorporated under the laws of Wisconsin under that name. It was originated by the late Ogden H. Fethers, a charter member of the society. A change will necessitate an amendment to the articles which will mean some expense and inconvenience.

There was no discussion of the matter last night, but it was evident that the members were deeply interested in the proposal.

JOSEPH PERRUCCIO BROUGHT TO PRISON

Beloit Man Sentenced to Five Years' Imprisonment Enters Gates of Penitentiary.

Joseph Perruccio of Beloit, sentenced yesterday afternoon by Judge George Grimm of the circuit court to five years' imprisonment in the state prison at Waupun, was taken to that institution this morning by Turnkey Wogan. His sentence calls for but one day of solitary confinement.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Bankers Warned: The police department received word from a detective agency yesterday afternoon that a skilful check forger had been sent to many of the bankers. The man in question is named L. E. De Lone, and defrauds the bankers by using his personal check which is worthless. He is familiar with the bank supply—the personnel of banks of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. De Lone seeks out an official of a small bank, presents a showy card and induces officer to O. K. his check, which he cashes before leaving. His age is given as 28 years.

Case Adjourned: The case of the State of Wisconsin versus Joseph Bowers and Mrs. Martha T. Pike, set for trial in the municipal court this morning has been adjourned by consent of counsel for two weeks.

Put in Manholes: The Rock County Telephone Company is putting in manholes for its conduits that have been laid during the last six weeks, and will soon be ready to place cables in them.

Help Celebrate: F. C. Huginn and family, together with a few nearby neighbors, helped Mr. Horace Cunningham celebrate his birthday at his home on Milwaukee Avenue last evening.

CALLA HEAGNEY MARRIED TO BYRON JONES TODAY

Shortly before seven o'clock this morning, at the St. Patrick's church, occurred the marriage of Miss Calla Heagney to Byron Jones, both of this city. The ceremony was solemnized by Father Mahoney before witnesses Walter and Gertrude Heagney, brother and sister of the bride. A wedding breakfast was served immediately following the ceremony. The happy couple, after which the happy couple left on an early train for Raleigh, North Carolina, where they will spend the winter months. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James Heagney, 436 South Franklin street.

Mostly Men.

Bix—"Has your wife many speaking acquaintances?" Dix—"Not very many; they are nearly all listening ones."—Boston Transcript.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Geo. L. Hatch's dancing class and hop tonight at 8:00 p. m. at the Presbyterian church will hold their annual Christmas sale at the church parlors, Wednesday, Dec. 3, beginning at twelve o'clock.

Janesville Lodge No. 254, B. P. O. E. will hold regular meeting this evening.

The Athens class will meet in their regular session, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, in Library Hall.

Circle No. 4 will meet at the church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 for work.

A mothers' meeting will be held Wednesday at 3:00 p. m. by the W. C. T. U. at the West Side O. P. hall. Business of importance. All members come if possible.

Regular communication of Western Star Lodge No. 14, F. and A. M., at Masonic hall at 8:00 p. m. Members requested to be present. L. M. Nelson.

Regular meeting of Mystic Workers tonight at East Side Odd Fellows hall. Oryster supper after meeting for members only.

Circle No. 2 of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. T. E. Bannison, 215 South Jackson street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. F. O. Humphrey, Pres.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Charles Kahn, of London, England, is in the city for about ten days, in the interest of his tobacco business across the waters. It is expected he will return to England within a short time.

Richard Jones of this city, and a fifth year student at the Wisconsin university, returned to school after attending the wedding of his brother, Byron, this morning.

Mrs. J. H. Valentine of Chicago is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gage on North Bluff street.

Edward Kirby transacted business in Monroe today.

Mrs. George E. Holmes and niece, Miss Clara Cook of Chicago, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Thomas Gage on South Franklin street.

Reverend Mr. O. S. Nelson, Nelson goes to Beloit tomorrow to attend the wedding of his sister, Miss Melvia Nelson, to Stephen Burick of Jevanston, Iowa. Miss Nelson has been organist at Trinity church, Beloit for nine years, and was organist at the recent concert given at the Congregational church in this city by Lutheran choirs from several cities and villages.

Archie Reid, Jr., has gone to New York state for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. King moved from 221 South Main street to the Cullen flats on South Main street today.

The Social Club of Crystal Camp, R. N. A., will meet on Thursday, November 6, with Mrs. Robert Krahnert of 1020 McKee boulevard.

The W. L. M. C. and the First M. E. church will meet in the church parlors on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. F. T. Richards will be the leader.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hoffman and son of Milwaukee are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rutter of South Main street.

Miss Alice E. Evanson, Ill., has returned home after a short visit in Janesville on business.

The engagement of Maurice Lane and Miss Cornelia Sheffield of Evanson, Ill., has been announced.

Mr. Lane is the son of Mrs. Irene Lane of Evanson and the grandson of the late Colonel W. B. Britton. He spent many months of his early life in this city and has many friends here who will extend congratulations.

Miss Emma Winaus, who has been confined to the house for the past five weeks with illness, is convalescing rapidly.

Misses Sara Sutherland and Elizabeth McMann have returned from a visit in Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cullen of South Bluff street have given up their Prairie du Chien where they visited their son and daughter, who are attending school in that city.

Mrs. Charles Pierce spent the day in Rockford.

The ladies of the Christ Church Guild met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Herbert Ford of Milton avenue.

The Twentieth Century Class met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Van Kirk. John Gaisworthy and his works were the topic of the afternoon. The next meeting will be held on November 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Earle entertained Miss Mary Marie of Evansville last week.

George Acheson of Evansville was a Janesville visitor on Monday.

Mark Bostwick is home from a business trip in Indiana.

The Misses Alice and Mary Roherty of this city spent Sunday in Edgerton with friends.

David Holmes and Victor Richardson spent Monday evening at the Bilk's club in Beloit.

Mrs. R. A. Arnold of Forest Park boulevard will entertain the Tattling Club on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 5th, at half after two.

Mrs. Fred Koebelin will entertain the ladies of a Five Hundred club on Wednesday afternoon at her home. This club meets every two weeks during the winter season.

The Helping Circle of the Baptist church will meet on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Taylor, at 236 North Washington street.

Hugh Craig has returned from the west where he spent the most of the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Craig will occupy the Wray home on Milwaukee avenue for the winter.

The Athens Class will meet at the Library hall on Wednesday, Nov. 5th. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and daughter, Helen, who have been spending several weeks with Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schnell, have returned to their home in Belvidere.

Mrs. W. T. Alderman of 1303 South Third street entertained a ladies' club this afternoon. They played Five Hundred, refreshments being served after the game.

Mrs. Charles Skelly, Mrs. Hugh Durson and daughter, Grace, left for Chicago this morning where they will spend two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Skelly.

Mr. and Mrs. George Krohn of Highland street went to Milwaukee this morning to attend the Highland-Cook wedding. Mr. Highland is a brother of Mrs. Krohn.

James Cutter and daughter, Mrs. Dykeman, left for Chicago yesterday where they will spend a week with Mr. Cutter's daughter, Mrs. Zinke.

Division No. 8 will meet on Wednesday, Nov. 5, at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. W. J. Baumann, 408 South Jackson street, Division No. 2 at the home of Mrs. James Botsford, 311 North Washington street, Division No. 8 with Mrs. Newhouse, 419 South Garfield avenue, same date and hour. All ladies of these Congregational divisions are invited.

Mrs. Thomas Dumphy of Harmony is in the city for a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Denning, on Lehigh street.

Frank Turner of Milwaukee transacted business in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Farley of Oshkosh are in the city, with intentions of locating in this city within the week.

Mrs. L. Millbrandt and daughter Ruth of Brooklyn are guests at the home of Mrs. Frank Kennedy of this city.

Mrs. Mary Arnold of Hanover was a visitor in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. Zachary Hamilton of Lake Bluff were visitors in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hess of Sparta, Wis., who they left late this afternoon for Chicago, where they will make a short visit.

Fred Hilden of Rockford transacted business in the city today. His intentions are of moving to this city.

The Eastern Star Chapter will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Weirick, 452 Garfield avenue. Mrs. William Fleck will assist in entertaining.

Mrs. Martin Jackson of Rockford and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Blensich of St. Louis, are here to attend the funeral of Franklin M. Francis.

Luck.

Luck is what enables a man to jump from the frying pan into the fire and put the fire out.

WAS TO BE MARRIED ON DAY OF FUNERAL

Fact Adds Touch of Unusual Sadness to Last Services for Ernie Silverthorne.

Unusual sadness marked the funeral services for Ernie Silverthorne, held at one o'clock Sunday afternoon from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Silverthorne, on Chatham street, for it was the same day upon which his marriage to a local young woman was to have been solemnized.

The Rev. W. Wetzel of Watertown conducted the funeral services and spoke tender words of comfort to the bereaved relatives and loved ones. Misses Martha Zabel, Ella Campbell, Rose Radel and Martha Conrad, all of Watertown, composed a quartet which sang at the home and at the grave. Their selections were: "Like the Roses We Must Fall" and "Silent Was His Footsteps, But Not Forgotten."

The hall bearers were: Carl Inman, Fred Clark, Fred Diehl, Carl Beirs, George Dohs and Frank Clark. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery.

RAILWAY COMMISSION TO CONDUCT HEARING

Will Investigate Necessity for Physical Connection Between Telephone Systems.

In pursuance of the petition of Emmet D. McGowan that the Wisconsin Telephone Company and the Rock County Telephone Company should cause physical connection to be made between their lines, the Wisconsin railway commission will conduct a hearing in the municipal court room at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. Chief of Police Ransom has been directed to serve subpoenas upon several witnesses whom the commission desires to examine in making its investigation as to the necessity of the connection.

10 Days' Free Interest

Interest at the rate of 3% will be allowed from the first day of the month on all money deposited here on or before November 10th.

Rock County Savings and Trust Co.

Offices with the Rock County National Bank.

Tender Meaty Spareribs Lb. 15c Fresh Beef Liver Lb. 12c

Sauerkraut and Spareribs. Fine cut Sauer Kraut, qt. . . . 8c Gal. 25c Jersey Sweet Potatoes and Hubbard Squash.
Turnips, Carrots and Parsnips, lb. 2c
Holland Cabbage, 5c and 7c per head.
Holland Herring, lb. 10c
Keg 80c
10 pkg. Corn Flakes 5c
6 small or 3 tall cans of Milk for 25c
Heinz Bulk Mince Meat, lb. 20c
Red Kidney Beans, can. . . . 10c
Refugee String Beans, can 15c
Extra small Lima Beans, can 15c
Succotash, can. 10c and 15c
Dry Lima Beans and Split Peas lb. 10c
Scotch Peas, lb. 8c
3 lbs. Lintels 25c

ROESLING BROS.
6 phones, all 128.

DENTAL INSPECTION IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

School Board Votes to Accept Offer of Janesville Dental Association. Engage New Teacher.

Janesville public school children are to have the privilege of free dental inspection. The board of education at its regular meeting last evening having voted to accept the proposition of the Dental Association, Dr. Ira M. Holsapple appeared before the board on the behalf of the dentists and said that they would be willing to do the work with the assistance of the visiting nurse who is to keep the records of inspection and notify the parents of children whose teeth need attention. Instruction in mouth hygiene, the care of the teeth and gums, will be given in the schools in connection with the inspections.

The board has engaged as an additional teacher in the high school, Miss Gertrude Simmons of Lake Mills, who is a graduate of Beloit college and has had eight years of experience. She will have classes in English and history. Increased enrollment in the high school necessitated the employment of an additional teacher.

3 Grape Fruit, 25c

Nice heavy Floridas.
Smaller size, 4 for 25c.
Very fancy Jonathan Eating Apples, any size, $2.75 box.
Fancy Greenings, 45c pk.; $4.35 bbl.
Washed Parsnips, 4c lb.; 35c pk.
Canadian Rutabagas, 2c lb.
Yellow Bleached Endive 8c head.
Schnell's Celery 5c.
Cucumbers and Fresh Mushrooms.
Cauliflower and Vegetable Oysters.
Red or White Cluster Grapes.
Finest New Washed or Layer Figs.
New Bright Dates 10c lb.
New Smoked Halibut Chunks.
New Smoked Bloaters.
New Smoked Boned Herring.
Fancy Cod Chunks and Boned Cod.
Fresh Cask Cider 30c gal.

Dedrick Bros.

Janesville Meat House

Chickens, Young Ducks, Pork Tenderloin and Spare-ribs.

If you like good home made Sausage, any kind, try ours and compare prices and quality.

A. G. Metzinger

PHONES: New 56 Old 436

THE BIG STORE

New Dates, lb. 10c.
Fancy Red and Yellow Bananas.
Eating Pears.
Apples of all kinds.
Snows, lb. 6c.
Jonathans, lb. 7c.
20-oz. Pippins, lb. 5c.
Pound Sweets, lb. 5c.
Starks, lb. 5c.
Greenings, lb. 4c.
California Sunkist Oranges doz. 40c.
Florida Oranges, doz. 30c.
Grape Fruit, 8c, 10c, 3 for 25c.
Canadian Rutabagas, Beets, Parsnips, Carrots, lb. 2c.
Red and Yellow Onions, lb. 3c.
Spanish Onions.
Vegetable Oysters, Lettuce, Celery.
Elegant Cauliflower.

Taylor Bros.
415-417 W. Milw. St.
Both Phones.

To Winter Quarters: Three sections of ninety cars of the Ringling circus passed through this city early this morning en route to Baraboo for the winter. The trains were taken from Kansas City here over the St. Paul route and were transferred to the Northwestern at the Janesville yards.

Rheumatism SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY THE WONDERFUL MOOR MUD BATH TREATMENTS

Nervousness, Liver and Kidney Troubles, Gall Stones, Eczema and Kindred Diseases, cured or relieved. DR. S. S. GILLES, Medical Director. Address all communications to:

WAUKESHA MOOR BATH CO., 350 Prospect Ave., Waukesha, Wisc. Open all the year round.

Rink Closes Thursday Night

on account of the Revival Meetings. The rink will open for skating Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and also Thursday night.

Ladies Free Afternoons and Thursday Night.

Rink re-opens Monday, Nov. 17th.

Fresh Pig Liver Tomorrow
Fresh Oysters Qt. 45c Pt. 25c
6 Lbs. New Clean Cracked Rice 25c
2 Lbs. Bulk Peanut Butter 25c

J. F. Carle & Son
New phone Red 200; Old phone, 512.

SNOW MELLOW 25c PKG.
MacLAREN'S CHEESE 15c JAR.
LARGE CAN SLICED PINEAPPLE 25c.
WHITE CLOVER HONEY 18c LB.
TRY A PKG. OF PURITY OATS 10c PKG.
PICNIC HAMS 12c LB.
4 PKGS. CORN FLAKES 25c.
SCUDDER MAPLE SYRUP 25c, 40c and 75c.

E. R. Winslow
24 N. Main St.

See The Mammoth Cheese In Our Window

This cheese will not be cut until most or all of it is sold. Let us have your order for a pound or two to be delivered when cut.
Toasted Rye Flakes; try a pkg., they are good, 8c.
Maple Corn Flakes 7c.
Cream of Rye Breakfast Food 15c.
Apples, all kinds.
Fresh Vegetables.
Spareribs, lb. 15c.
Leg of Mutton or Mutton Chops, lb. 15c.
Veal Steak, lb. 25c.

Rothermel & Co.

FAIR STORE

Special Sale of Rubbers and Overshoes

Second floor.
Children's Storm Rubbers, 4 to 10½, at 29c.
Girls' Storm Rubbers, 11 to 2, at 49c.
Ladies' Storm Rubbers at 50c.
Ladies' Fleece Lined Rubbers, at 75c.
Boys' Rolled Edge Rubbers, size 11 to 2, at 65c; 2½ to 5 at 75c.
Men's Storm Rubbers at 75c.
Men's Work Rubbers with double rubber soles, at $1.25.
Men's Fleece Lined Rubbers, at $1 a pair.
Children's 1 buckle Arctic Overshoes, 4 to 10½, at 75c.
Girls' 1 buckle Arctic Overshoes, 11 to 2, at 85c.
Women's 1 buckle Arctic Overshoes at $1.00.
Little Boys' 1 buckle Arctic Overshoes at 90c.
Boys' 1 buckle Arctic Overshoes at $1.00.
Men's 1 buckle Arctic Overshoes at $1.00.
Men's Rolled Edge 1 buckle Arctic Overshoes $1.50.
Men's All Rubber Overshoes, warm lined, 1 buckle, at $1.95.
Men's Double Sole 1 buckle Arctic Overshoes $1.95.
Men's Felt Boots and Rubbers at $2.50.
Men's Sheep Skin Moccasins at 50c.
Men's 2 buckle Rubbers, warm lined for German socks, at $1.75.
Men's Rubber Boots at $3.00.

"IT'S A GOOD HORSE THAT NEVER STUMBLES, IT'S A GOOD WIFE THAT NEVER GRUMBLES."
As a rule there's little grumbling where our coal is used.

ECONOMY COAL IS GOOD COAL JANESVILLE COAL CO. PHONE 89

Nolan Bros. & Co. Cash Grocery and Meat Market

20 Lbs. Genuine Cane Sugar $1.00

100-lb. sack Genuine Cane Sugar for $4.90
White Lily Fancy Patent Flour, sk. $1.25
Golden Crown Fancy Minnesota Patent Flour $1.35
Special price on some fancy large size prunes. These prunes are strictly sound and all right; while they last, lb. . . . 7c; 4 lbs. 25c
Extra Fancy New Evaporated Peaches, while they last, lb. 7c 4 lbs. 25c
Fancy New Evaporated Apricots, while they last, lb. . . . 15c 2 lbs. 25c
New Dates, lb. 10c; 3 lbs. 25c
Fancy Layer Figs, lb. . . . 18c
7 bars Santa Claus or Lenox Soap 25c
6 bars Galvanic or Ocean Pearl Soap 25c
Johnson's Pure Apple Sweet Cider, gal. 30c
New White Clover Honey, lb. 20c
Famous Colby Full Cream Cheese lb. 23c
3 pkgs. Nonesuch Mince Meat for 25c
New Fancy Hickory Nuts, lb. 5c 6 lbs. 25c
Fancy New York Baldwin Apples pk. 45c
Fancy Greening Apples, pk. 45c
Guaranteed Strictly Fresh laid Eggs, doz. 33c
New English Walnuts, lb. 20c
New Monsoon Brand Fancy Seed Raisins, lb. 10c
Richelieu or Clubhouse Finest Quality Seed Raisins, lb. 12½c
Gallon cans Blue Label Karo Corn Syrup 40c
Gallon cans Red Label White Karo Corn Syrup 45c
New hand picked Navy Beans, lb. 6c
K. C. Baking Powder, 25 oz. 25c
Dr. Price's or Royal Baking Powder, lb. 45c
Lipton's Red and Yellow Label Tea 30c and 35c ½-lb. tin,

HOG MARKET DULL
AND PRICES LOWER

Another Heavy Run on Market Today
Forces Quotations Down Five and Ten Cents.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Nov. 4.—Another heavy run on the hog market this morning resulted in a decline of five and ten cents in prices. The market was dull and unsatisfactory. Cattle trade was inclined to be slow but prices held at yesterday's quotations. Sheep were steady to firm. Following is the price list:
Cattle—Receipts 7,000; market slow and steady at yesterday's close: heavy 6.60@6.75; Texas steers 6.65@6.75; western steers 6.00@6.25; stockers and feeders 5.00@5.50; cows and heifers 3.30@3.85; calves 6.50@10.75.
Hogs—Receipts 24,000; market dull 5c and 10c lower than Monday's average: light 7.40@7.75; mixed 7.45@8.15; heavy 7.55@8.10; rough 7.35@7.55; butts 4.75@7.40; bulk of sales 7.50@10.00.
Sheep—Receipts 30,000; market steady: native 4.00@5.00; western 4.10@5.00; yearlings 5.00@6.00; lambs native 6.00@7.40; western 6.00@7.50.
Butter—Easy; creameries 22 1/2¢.
Eggs—Steady and unchanged; 4.07¢ cases.
Cheese—Unchanged.
Poultry—Unchanged; 45 cars.
Poultry—Alive: Easier; turkeys 16¢; fowls 11¢; springs 12¢.
Wheat—Dec: Opening 85 1/4¢@85 1/2¢; high 85 1/4¢; low 84 1/4¢; closing 84 1/4¢@85 1/4¢; May: Opening 89 1/4¢@89 1/2¢; high 89 1/4¢; low 89 1/4¢; closing 89 1/4¢@89 1/2¢.
Corn—Dec: Opening 69 1/4¢@69 1/2¢; high 69 1/4¢; low 68 3/4¢; closing 69 1/4¢@69 1/2¢; May: Opening 70 1/4¢@70 1/2¢; high 70 1/4¢; low 69 3/4¢; closing 70 1/4¢@70 1/2¢.
Oats—Dec: Opening 37 1/4¢@37 1/2¢; high 37 1/4¢; low 37 1/4¢; closing 37 1/4¢@37 1/2¢; May: Opening 41 1/4¢@41 1/2¢; high 41 1/4¢; low 41 1/4¢; closing 41 1/4¢@41 1/2¢.
Rye—65¢.
Barley—54¢@50¢.
BUTTER WAS FIRM
AT THIRTY-ONE CENTS
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Elgin, Ill., Nov. 3.—Butter firm, 31 cents.

JANESVILLE WHOLESALE MARKET.

Janesville, Wis., Nov. 4, 1913.
Straw, Corn, Oats—Straw, $6.50@7.00; baled hay, $10@12; loose (small demand) corn, $1.17@1.18; 35c@40c; barley, $1.20@1.30; 28¢@40c; barley, $1.10@1.20 per 100 lbs; rye, 63¢ for 40 lbs.
Poultry—Dressed hens, 18c; dressed young springers, 25c; geese, live, 11c; dressed, 14c. Turkeys, dressed, 20c; live, 14c.
Steers and Cows—$4.50@9.00 and $9.25.
Hogs—$8.25@9.00.
Sheep—55¢; lambs, $8.50@9.00.
Feed—(Rye) $1.15@1.16; $1.70 per 100 lbs.; bran $1.25@1.30; standard middlings, $1.30; flour middlings, $1.45.

LOCAL MARKETS.
Janesville, Wis., Nov. 4, 1913.
Vegetables—Potatoes, 90¢@95¢ a bu; new cabbage, 3c lb; lettuce 10c head; carrots, 5c bunch; beets, 5c bunch; Texas onions, 5c lb; green onions, 2 bunches, 5c; peppers, green 2 and 3 for 5c; white, 3 for 5c; spinach, 3c lb; pineapples, 10¢@15¢ each; cucumbers 2 and 3 for 15¢; spinach 8c lb; celery 6c, 3 for 10¢; parsnips, 3c lb; carrots, 2c bunch.
Fruit—Oranges, 50¢@60¢, dozen; bananas, 15¢@25¢ a dozen; lemons, 40¢ a dozen; plums, 15¢; pears, 30¢@40¢; $1.50 bushel; Colorado peaches, $1.10 box; Michigan, $2.25 bu; grapes 12¢@15¢ basket; canning pears, $1.15@1.25 bushel; apples, eating, 4¢@5¢ lb; cooking, 3c lb.
Butter—Creamery, 35¢@36¢; dairy 20¢@31¢; eggs 30¢ doz; cheese 32¢@35¢; oleomargarine 18¢@22¢ lb; pure lard 16¢@17¢ lb; lard compound, 15c lb.; honey, 20c lb.
Nuts—English walnuts, 20c lb; black walnuts, 35¢ pk; hickory nuts, 50¢@55¢ lb; Brazil nuts, 15¢; peanuts, 10¢@15¢ lb; popcorn, 5¢@6¢ lb.
Fish—Summer lake trout, 15¢; white 18c lb; halibut, 18c; blueheads, 18c. Oysters—45¢@50¢ qt.

ORFORDVILLE

Orfordville, Nov. 3.—John Reader of Palmyra is spending a few days with his son, Ed., at the Hotel Reader.
Mrs. Fortush, who has been spending some time with relatives in Fond du Lac, returned home on Saturday.
W. F. Kreuger has purchased of Ed. Ames his one-half interest in the blacksmith business. The firm will now be known as Larson and Kreuger.
An unusually large number of shoppers went to Janesville on Monday morning. Messrs. Gardner and Eggen also returned for jury service in the circuit court.
August Weiburg returned from Chicago Saturday evening. While there he purchased new furnishings for his restaurant.
Mrs. Frank Corvill is seriously ill at her home in the village. Her friends are worried over her condition.
The regular services were held both morning and evening in both churches in the village on Sunday. In the Lutheran, services were in the Norwegian language in the morning and in English in the evening.

NEWVILLE

Newville, Nov. 3.—On Sunday Mrs. Hill died suddenly of heart trouble at the home of her son, Bud. Funeral arrangements have not yet been learned.
Mr. and Mrs. White were Sunday guests of L. Peck and family.
Charlie Bates visited at George Kothlow's the first of the week.
Lee Alder gave a very pleasant party in his new shop on Friday evening. The place was artistically decorated in Halloween style. Dancing was the chief amusement of the evening. Mr. Knott and Mr. Doty furnishing the music. The guests left at an early hour, having had a delightful time.
Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Klitzke of Orfordville were here for the dance on Friday night.
It is hoped as many as possible will attend Sunday school next Sunday to decide an important matter.
Dr. Myers, George Kothlow and Charles Brown are each to have electric lights installed soon.
Sour Graves.
I do not care for riches,
I do not care for gold,
I do not care for jewels,
If real truth be told,
I do not care for autos,
I do not care for a yacht,
Nor an expensive mansion
Built on any spot,
I do not care for these things,
My scruples all forbid,
Because, you see, it would make
No difference if I did.

Today's Evansville News

HOST TO SALESMEN
OF BAKER COMPANY

Paul Ames Entertains Company of Sixty Employees at His Farm Home Near Brooklyn.
Evansville, Nov. 4.—Last evening Paul Ames entertained at his home near Brooklyn the traveling salesmen and foremen of the different departments of Baker Manufacturing Company. The company left the Central house at six o'clock via autos provided by the host and immediately upon arriving at the F. M. Ames home a bountiful supper was served, the present numbering about sixty. After supper a program was given. Miss Fern Ball pleased with several readings, Miss Clark sang, also Mrs. Park Ames. Mr. Parla, one of the traveling salesmen, told anecdotes and stories and Mr. Baker gave a very interesting talk on the early history of the Baker Manufacturing Company.

Miss Mary Casey of Janesville is spending a few days with local friends.
Mrs. L. S. Palmer and daughter, Miss Mae, are moving into the Henry Seales house on First street, recently vacated by W. Cleveland and family.
H. E. White of Brooklyn, N. Y., was a business visitor here yesterday. Orford Jones was a Janesville visitor yesterday.
Edward Dabson of Janesville was a business caller here yesterday. Orford Grubill was a Janesville visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Finn and son Leonard, Miss Mae Finn and Mrs. Will Rush motored to Albany Sunday, where they spent the day with friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carpenter spent Sunday night with Janesville relatives.
Horace Brown of Janesville was the over Sunday guest of his mother, Mrs. Mary Brown.
R. B. Shuster was a business visitor in Janesville yesterday. Judge Dindorf and family have returned from a visit with Madison friends.
George Bauer of Janesville was a business caller here yesterday. Mrs. Laura Flint returned Monday from a visit with relatives in San Francisco, California.
R. M. Richmond was a Janesville business visitor yesterday. Mrs. N. Blakely of Janesville was a local caller yesterday.
J. S. Dabson of Janesville transacted business here yesterday.
L. C. Johnson and family are moving to Brodhead, which city they will make their future home.
George Bidwell and wife entertained the following at dinner Sunday: Charles Conger and wife of Beloit, Charles Bidwell and wife and K. Graessinger and wife of this city.
E. H. Mattice and wife, son Paul and Webb Owen of Footville motored here Sunday where they spent the day at the W. D. Brown home.
Geo. Gray of Beloit spent Sunday with his family here.

J. O. Eastman of New Lisbon is visiting local relatives.
The local Royal Neighbors were entertained at Brooklyn Saturday.
J. E. Kelly of Beloit spent Sunday with relatives.
W. S. Gollmar and family of Araboo spent Sunday with local relatives.
Frank Wilcox and Miss Marjorie Wilder of Madison spent Sunday at their parental home.
M. S. Paul and family have moved into the Devendorf home on North Madison street.
J. B. Porter was a Janesville visitor.

Today's Edgerton News

Edgerton, Nov. 4.—The Marquette literary club at their regular meeting last evening, entertained their bands and friends at a Halloween social held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nichols. Pretty Halloween decorations were used throughout the rooms. A sixtieth dinner was served after which a short program, consisting of music and readings, was rendered. The remainder of the evening was spent at the card tables. Mrs. F. Ulrich and D. F. Devine carried off the honors, while Miss Josephine Burns and J. Kealey received the consolation trophies.
Hershel North left this morning for a week's visit with friends at De Kalb, Ill.
Relatives of the late John Hyland, who were here for the funeral from out of town, were Miles Sweeney, Sheldon, Iowa; James Sweeney, Sanborn, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. H. Seaman, Anderson, S. Dakota; Mr. and Mrs. Benson, Stoughton; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hyland, Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs.

MILTON

Milton, Nov. 4.—Rev. W. T. Miller and his four sons: Rev. Perry Miller of Janesville, Rev. Webster Miller of Milton Junction, Rev. Frank Miller of Oakfield, and Rev. William Miller of New York City enjoyed a reunion Monday. Mesdames W. T. and Perry Miller being present. After dining at the Park hotel the old gentlemen conferred a light stroke of apoplexy, but seemingly to rally from the attack. It was not as severe as the one he suffered some time ago.
Mrs. H. D. Clarke and daughter have been visiting relatives in Milwaukee.
W. H. Davidson, who has been quite ill, is able to be about the house again.
Postal Clerk Hungerford of Janesville spent Sunday at Mrs. E. C. Gray's.

WEST CENTER

West Center, Nov. 3.—Chas. Fisher moved into the Joe Busch farm last week, which he purchased recently. Herman Busch moved onto the W. J. Owen farm, near Footville, just vacated by John Fraser, who has taken possession of the E. H. Mathie store in Footville.
The first real snow of the season converted the ground Thursday morning. It rained all day Wednesday, turning into snow during the night. Mrs. Ernest Ely is slowly recovering from her serious illness.
Some from here attended the funeral of David Yeoman last Sunday. Mrs. Roy Chipman of Janesville spent Saturday at the home of Geo. Pepper.

Fred Phipper, Aberdeen, South Dakota; Mrs. M. Steel, Janesville; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts of Janesville; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Roberts, son Robert of Center, and John of Madison; Dr. L. Hyland and wife of Macland; Dr. F. Hyland and wife of Stoughton; Ross Hyland and daughter, Gertrude, from Stoughton; Mr. and Mrs. Stoley Nelson of Stoughton; Sam Henderson and daughter, Mae, of Janesville, and Edward Hyland of Stoughton.
C. L. Culton is a business visitor in Madison for several days.
Mrs. Thos. Hartzell died at the home of her son, S. Hartzell, this morning. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Hartzell homestead, three miles west of town.
Wm. Culton of Whitewater, is visiting relatives here for a few days.
Mrs. H. H. Coates of Araboo, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. P. D. Lyons.
Miss Lucile Culton spent today with friends in Rockford.

WEST CENTER

West Center, Nov. 3.—Chas. Fisher moved into the Joe Busch farm last week, which he purchased recently. Herman Busch moved onto the W. J. Owen farm, near Footville, just vacated by John Fraser, who has taken possession of the E. H. Mathie store in Footville.
The first real snow of the season converted the ground Thursday morning. It rained all day Wednesday, turning into snow during the night. Mrs. Ernest Ely is slowly recovering from her serious illness.
Some from here attended the funeral of David Yeoman last Sunday. Mrs. Roy Chipman of Janesville spent Saturday at the home of Geo. Pepper.

WEST CENTER

West Center, Nov. 3.—Chas. Fisher moved into the Joe Busch farm last week, which he purchased recently. Herman Busch moved onto the W. J. Owen farm, near Footville, just vacated by John Fraser, who has taken possession of the E. H. Mathie store in Footville.
The first real snow of the season converted the ground Thursday morning. It rained all day Wednesday, turning into snow during the night. Mrs. Ernest Ely is slowly recovering from her serious illness.
Some from here attended the funeral of David Yeoman last Sunday. Mrs. Roy Chipman of Janesville spent Saturday at the home of Geo. Pepper.

MILTON JUNCTION

Milton Junction, Nov. 4.—David Craton of Janesville spent Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. Maggie Moriarty. The official board of the M. E. church met at the church last night for their monthly business meeting. Rev. Frank Miller, who lives in the northern part of the state, spent Sunday night with his brother, Rev. Webster Miller.
The Epworth League is holding a business meeting with the Misses Clara and Alice Hull tonight.
Rev. Miller and family attended a family reunion which was held yesterday at the home of his father at Milton.
A. M. Guernsey of Johnston was a caller at D. M. Wauke's on Monday.

You Do Not Need

a large sum with which to open a bank account with The Bank of Evansville. You can start with one dollar or more, deposit as often as you wish and in any amount. We pay 4% interest on your money.

THE BANK OF EVANSVILLE

Evansville, Wis.
Founded 1870.
GEO. L. PULLEN, Pres.

MAGNOLIA CENTER

Magnolia Center, Nov. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cole and daughter, Jessie, from near Albany, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. Grady and family. Misses Mildred and Jessie Mapes of Evansville spent Sunday at the parental home.
Mrs. T. Meely and family entertained a number of relatives and friends Sunday.
Miss Frances Mau of Footville spent Sunday at home.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Palmer entertained between forty and fifty at a party Saturday evening. Games were the chief amusement. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served. On departing all present declared the evening had been most enjoyably spent.
Mrs. J. Grady visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. J. O'Neill.

MILTON JUNCTION

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cary of Milton Junction welcomed a baby boy Monday morning, Nov. 3. Weight eight and one-half pounds.
Mrs. A. M. Glenn is at Milton Junction helping to care for her new grandson.
Thoughtful Housemaid.
"Mr. Wombat is in the parlor, Miss." "Tell him I'm out." "Just as you say, Miss, but he has a beautiful box of candy with him."

Dining Room Furniture At a Saving

You can save money on every purchase in this store. No matter where you look you'll not find values as low as ours on equally as high class merchandise. If you are in need of new pieces for the dining room or for an entire outfit, you will do well to come here. You can not lose by it.
In dining room tables we offer 6, 8 and 10-ft. lengths at from $3.00 to $8.00
New Round Tables in 6 and 8-ft. lengths, as low as $8.00 and up to $35.00
New Dining Room Chairs from $1.00 to $2.00

W. J. CANNON The Store Where Low Prices Rule

218 West Milwaukee Street.

VISIT OUR BASEMENT
SALESROOM. SOMETHING SPECIAL
EVERY DAY.

J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

SPECIAL SALE OF
BLANKETS AND COMFORTERS, SECOND FLOOR.

Art Needlework Section

North Room

Special Sale Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 6, 7 and 8

Battenburg and Japanese Drawn Work, Scarfs, 87c and 98c Center Pieces

We have just received a big shipment of Battenburg Scarfs and Center Pieces, also Japanese Drawn Work Scarfs and Center Pieces, all new, fresh goods, just received. They will be divided into two lots as follows:

Lot 1 at 87c
Lot 2 at 98c
See Window Display.

Over the Tea-Cups

No time of day when a woman more enjoys the consciousness of being perfectly gowned than in the refreshing hour given to tea and tranquility. The relaxation is vastly increased if she enjoys it in the restful ease and comfort of a

Warner's Rust-Proof Corset

The Corset that braces, buoys up and beautifies the modern woman through the active hours of her crowded days. The right Warner model for every type of figure.

$1.00 to $8.00 PER PAIR.
SOUTH ROOM.

Special Demonstration and Sale All This Week, West Electric Hair Curler and the West Flat Hook and Eye, Main Aisle

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

From the Diary of a Grandmother; being a few extracts from the diary of a grandmother who visits her daughter and her four grandchildren for the first time.

INTRODUCING THE GRANDMOTHER.

"THIS is the first time I have written in my diary for eight days. I don't think that has happened since I began to keep my diary forty years ago.

But then this is also the first time I have crossed a continent, seen a daughter and a grandchild I had not seen for twelve years, and three grandchildren I had never seen.

"It seems unthinkable in these days when big distances mean so little that we have let twelve years go by without seeing each other, but of course Margaret has been tied down by her children, and David and I have lived so long in a small town that we have grown timid about venturing out into the big world.

"However, I'm here now and I'm going to make the most of this winter. Just now I'm getting acquainted with my grandchildren. There are four of them. Janet, the baby, whom Margaret brought home to us thirteen years ago, is fifteen. She is taller than Margaret, quite as well developed, and decidedly prettier both in face and figure. I was surprised to see that she still wears her hair down her back like a child. Margaret says that is the proper thing now-a-days; 'all the really nice girls do it.'

"But, the next child, is eleven. Richard is nine and David, the baby, named after my David, is only ten months. Ruth is not so pretty as Janet but very bright and amusing. She's a nervous, high-strung child and does not seem quite well to me. When I get better acquainted with my daughter I'm going to suggest sulphur and molasses. Richard is four feet of freckled, irrepressible, tow-headed boy, and the baby is a perfect darling. Even without the rest he would be worth coming the four thousand miles to see. It is so many years since I have had a baby of my own flesh and blood in my arms that I long to cuddle him every moment. But he is being brought up in the new fashioned way, so I am seldom allowed to touch him.

"I am glad that I'm here to help Margaret as she does not look well at all. She has a very pleasant, convenient house and a servant to help her with her work. And yet she seems to be completely tired out every night. Much more so, I'm sure, than I was when I was bringing up my children. Of course I only had three children, but then I never dreamed of having a maid; and my sister Mary with her six children and no help seemed to find life a good deal easier than Margaret does.

"I am going to try while I am here to find out why this is. I have a suspicion already but I won't set it down until I have more grounds to justify it."

In the next article Grandmother discovers that the children of today are different from the children of thirty years ago.

pleased to meet you, you might answer that the pleasure is mutual.

(3) I do not know, but he probably is; most actors and actresses are very thoroughly married and satisfied with their mates.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) How do you clean switches? Do you think strong coffee is good?

(2) Do you think that rosewater, glycerine and lemon juice will whiten the face and neck?

(3) How often should I wash my hair? I wash it twice a month, because it is very greasy.

(4) Do you think hair will get thick after an egg shampoo?

FRIEND,

(1) Wash the switch very much as you do your own hair. Make a warm sud and some the switch up and down in it until it is clean, rinsing it well. Squeeze water out and hang up in a current of air to dry. I do not think the coffee would do any harm. It might darken the switch.

(2) Not very much. Use lemon juice pure or slightly diluted with rosewater, to take out tan.

(3) Every two or three weeks is often enough. Rub a little witch hazel into the scalp if the hair is too oily.

(4) The egg shampoo keeps the hair in good condition, but does not make the hair grow particularly.

The Kitchen Cabinet

HERE is a shady side of life.

And a sunny side as well.

And 'tis for every one to say.

On which side he'd choose to dwell;

For every one unto himself.

Commits a grievous sin,

Who turns the blessed sunshine out

And shuts the shadows in.

—Josephine Pollard.

THANKSGIVING TABLE.

Frozen cranberries make a delicious change from the ordinary way of serving the berries at this season. Pick over and wash a quart of berries. Dissolve two cups of sugar in two cups of water and heat slowly until boiling hot, then add the cranberries and cook until soft; cool and add one-half cup of lemon juice. Rub through a sieve, turn into a melon mold and bury in ice and salt for four hours.

Dainty little individual pumpkin pies, baked in patty tins, are great favorites with the children and even grown-ups seem to tolerate them fairly well. Serve with a spoonful of whipped cream sprinkled with grated cheese, for the older people.

Candles, with pumpkin yellow shades for each corner of the table, go well with this centerpiece.

Thanksgiving Pudding.—To two cups of chopped suet add two cups of fine bread crumbs, softened with one cup of grape juice; add three well beaten eggs, one-half cup each of brown sugar and molasses, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg to taste. Mix well and add one cup of raisins, chopped, one-half cup of dried currants, one-fourth cup of candied orange peel and a half cup of nutmeats, all well dredged with flour. Sift two teaspoonsful of baking powder with a half cup of flour and add, beating, well. Put into well buttered molds or a mold and steam three hours. When ready to serve garnish with pudding with nut meats.

Sweet potatoes cooked until tender, then buttered and sprinkled with sugar, set into the oven to brown, make a pleasant change from the every day way of serving them.

Nellie Maxwell.

MISS WOOD RIDES 90 MILES WITH DAD

Little Miss Louisa Wood, the ten-year-old daughter of Major General Wood, chief of staff of the U. S. army, rode with her father and Colonel Heistand on their ninety-mile official test ride that every army officer must take once a year. They covered the distance in three days and little Miss Louisa said she felt better when it was over. The last forty-five miles were ridden in a driving rain, but she minded it not at all. She is here shown holding her thoroughbred, "Fort Hunter."

Miss Louisa Wood and "Fort Hunter."

Little Miss Louisa Wood, the ten-year-old daughter of Major General Wood, chief of staff of the U. S. army, rode with her father and Colonel Heistand on their ninety-mile official test ride that every army officer must take once a year. They covered the distance in three days and little Miss Louisa said she felt better when it was over. The last forty-five miles were ridden in a driving rain, but she minded it not at all. She is here shown holding her thoroughbred, "Fort Hunter."

Miss Louisa Wood and "Fort Hunter."

Little Miss Louisa Wood, the ten-year-old daughter of Major General Wood, chief of staff of the U. S. army, rode with her father and Colonel Heistand on their ninety-mile official test ride that every army officer must take once a year. They covered the distance in three days and little Miss Louisa said she felt better when it was over. The last forty-five miles were ridden in a driving rain, but she minded it not at all. She is here shown holding her thoroughbred, "Fort Hunter."

Miss Louisa Wood and "Fort Hunter."

Little Miss Louisa Wood, the ten-year-old daughter of Major General Wood, chief of staff of the U. S. army, rode with her father and Colonel Heistand on their ninety-mile official test ride that every army officer must take once a year. They covered the distance in three days and little Miss Louisa said she felt better when it was over. The last forty-five miles were ridden in a driving rain, but she minded it not at all. She is here shown holding her thoroughbred, "Fort Hunter."

Miss Louisa Wood and "Fort Hunter."

Little Miss Louisa Wood, the ten-year-old daughter of Major General Wood, chief of staff of the U. S. army, rode with her father and Colonel Heistand on their ninety-mile official test ride that every army officer must take once a year. They covered the distance in three days and little Miss Louisa said she felt better when it was over. The last forty-five miles were ridden in a driving rain, but she minded it not at all. She is here shown holding her thoroughbred, "Fort Hunter."

Miss Louisa Wood and "Fort Hunter."

Little Miss Louisa Wood, the ten-year-old daughter of Major General Wood, chief of staff of the U. S. army, rode with her father and Colonel Heistand on their ninety-mile official test ride that every army officer must take once a year. They covered the distance in three days and little Miss Louisa said she felt better when it was over. The last forty-five miles were ridden in a driving rain, but she minded it not at all. She is here shown holding her thoroughbred, "Fort Hunter."

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

If a thick cream is added to cake icing it will not crack when cut.

A little lard added to the starch will keep it from sticking.

To remove finger marks from hardwood floor, use borax.

Thin fabrics should always be rolled up in a coarse towel or piece of muslin to keep the outside from drying when sprinkled.

Scald sweet and sour milk, strain through cheese-cloth. To curd add sugar, yolks of eggs slightly beaten, lemon and salt. Line patty pans with waste, fill with the mixture, and sprinkle with chopped almonds. Bake until the mixture is firm to the touch.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of salt, one spoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, few gratings of lemon rind.

Line the pie tin with paste. Pare, core, and cut the apples into eighths, but a row around the plate one-half inch from the edge, and work to wards the center until the plate is covered; then pile on the remainder. Mix the sugar, nutmeg, salt, lemon juice, and grated rind, and sprinkle over apples. Dot over with butter. Wet the edges of the under crust, cover with the upper crust, and press edges together. Bake forty to forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Apple Pie—Four or five apples, one-third cup of sugar, one-fourth teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, one-eighth teaspoonful of

STREET CAR SERVICE IS AGAIN DISCUSSED

TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND CLUB CONFIDENT OF SECURING AN IMPROVEMENT.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE

Men Who Interviewed Manager Sparks Report His Inclination to Improve Conditions.

It is certain from the attitude of the members of the Twenty-five Thousand Club that Janesville will have better street car service within a year, if action has to be taken before the railroad commission to obtain the results. The subject of obtaining some where near reasonable service was fully discussed at the regular meeting of the club held last evening at the assembly rooms of the city hall, and a plan laid for a campaign to wipe out what was termed "the disgrace of Janesville."

President Frank Croak first called for the report of the committee appointed at the last meeting to investigate the condition of the traction company if they needed investigation, and to make a formal complaint to the Rockford officials. S. W. Rice, chairman of the committee which interviewed Manager Sparks of the Rockford and Interurban Company, owners of the Janesville traction company, stated that the committee had given the true facts and conditions regarding the service which Janesville citizens were obliged to contend with, and demanded better facilities, including new cars, a set schedule of transportation around a loop, and more efficient employees.

According to Rice the Rockford officials had promised new "pay as you enter" cars and admitted that they were not paying their employees sufficient wages to grant an efficient class of workmen, but as the company had expended a great deal of capital in repairing the line after taking it over, the directors were unable to pay out more money on the street railroad until spring, as the building of the Milwaukee street bridge had cut down the profits one-third and the line was not a paying proposition. The committee then ventured to show the Rockford man that if he would hire men that would stop for patrons on the streets and see that the conductors had transfers at all times, the line could be made to pay.

It was suggested that the company make a loop down Milton avenue, Main street through Spring Brook and up Franklin street to the cemetery and return, to overcome the bridge obstacle necessitating transferring passengers across the bridge. It was maintained that it was very seldom that a car was waiting for the passengers at the other end of the bridge and it was cheaper and better to walk.

P. S. Peterson voiced his opinion that the city had used the limit of patience with the Janesville traction company and to bring the desired result action should be taken before the state railroad commission and force the Rockford men to either give better service or the city take away their franchise. "For twenty-five years we have begged and demanded better service and what has been the result? The service is worse now than previous and it is time the city took something else besides no good promises from the Janesville traction company," he said.

It was explained that the commission could take no action on the improving of the service without the corporation showed a profit, and the line was steadily losing money. If the company would produce the service and better employees many leaks would be stopped and the railroad would run on a paying basis, was the answer given by one of the committeemen Mayor J. A. Fathers expressed himself in sympathy with the proposal to give the Interurban company a chance to make good their promise to the Twenty-five Thousand Club committee, and if no action was taken by them after a united effort by the club, then it was time to seek enforcement.

It was suggested that Manager Sparks be invited to visit the city to gain a first hand knowledge of the service given the city and to impress him with the urgent needs of a decided change. Mayor Fathers was added to the committee in charge of the work and steps will be taken to keep the improvement idea in the minds of the officials until results were obtained.

Turning to other business a new venture was placed before the club regarding the purchase or obtaining an option on certain lots in the city for the purpose of holding land for factory sites and cheap building lots for new laboring men coming with the factories. The question brought forth plenty of argument and the matter was left for further investigation. President Croak stated that the funds of the club were running at a low ebb and set forth a plan for the payment of fees to be pooled into a general fund, and to be placed to the credit of the subscribers. Money is necessary for the work and to obtain quick results there should be a floating amount of capital ready to meet emergencies.

In discussing factories nothing definite was transacted, President Croak reporting that a large concern manufacturing motorcycles in Chicago had expressed willingness to locate in this city and demanded only a small increase in capital by bonds or stock backed with good security. Hopes were entertained in securing another concern employing nearly a hundred men, which would be some time before the owners would be able to decide definitely about leaving their present location.

At the close of the meeting it was decided that the directors would hold their business meeting on the third Monday of each month, and that every week, as at no time was there enough of the officers able to attend the meeting in number enough to transact business.

SOLOISTS PRESENT ENJOYABLE PROGRAM

Miss Barbara Wait and Wm. Clare Hall Give Joint Recital Before Apollo Club.

Two soloists of ability and charm, Miss Barbara Wait, contralto, and William Clare Hall, tenor, gave a pleasing joint recital for the second number of the Apollo club program at library hall last evening. The numbers on the program were well selected and gave opportunity for the soloists to display their talents in an altogether delightful manner.

Miss Wait has a deep well-rounded contralto over which she has excellent control. Her voice seemed well adapted to dramatic singing as was demonstrated in her rendition of "Odeon Pate" from Don Carlos. She was equally delightful in the songs of a lighter vein; however, singing them with pleasing expression and charm.

Mr. Hall's clear, powerful, well-controlled tenor was most thoroughly enjoyed. At no time, and his numbers included several difficult pieces, was there the hint of any strain. A group of three songs, "Come to the Garden, Love," "Petals at Dawning" and "Lina" were especially pleasing and received well merited applause.

The last numbers, three of them, were perhaps the most difficult of the program, and were also among those most appreciated. Their voices blended in perfect harmony. The work of Miss Florence Headcon at the piano, deserves favorable mention.

Mr. Parker, president of the club, in an announcement before the opening of the program, explained to the members an opportunity to secure a company of famous Welsh singers, the January concert. The expense, he said, would be large and he asked for a vote of the club on the matter, the result being an unanimous approval of the proposal to bring them here. The December concert will be given by Edward Baxter Perry, blind pianist and lecturer, on the evening of Dec. 5.

TWO LITTLE BELOIT BOYS DIE WHEN SAND CAVES IN Beloit Youths Buried While Playing With Wagon.

Beloit, Wis., Nov. 4.—Willard Harris, aged four years, son of James Harris, and Raymond Gutke, 5 years old, son of Max Gutke, were buried alive when a sand pile in which they were playing on Monday.

The boys went to the pit, which is near the water works, drawing a red toy wagon, and it was while they were loading the wagon and pretending that they were a load of sand, that the sand piled up over their heads.

The boys were missed by their parents and after a frantic search the wagon was found on the sand. They started a search of the pit, where it was believed the boys had gone to sleep.

Finally it was suggested that they had been buried by the sand, and the searchers started digging.

The bodies of the boys were found several feet beneath the surface. A pulmotor was used without avail.

UNCLE WALT The Poet Philosopher

Copyright, 1909, by George Matthew Adams BY WALT MASON

The world went well when I was young, and anthems rose from every tongue; the politicians all were straight, their one desire to serve the state, and no one ever went to jail for swiping rolls of public kase. The merchants all wore pious grins, and ne'er put sand in sugar bins. No customer was ever long ago, when I was young. The world was sane when I was young, and every barrel possessed its lung. The women wore the Grecian and defend outrageous styles which shocked men's glims—they didn't advertise their limbs. And ere the Grecian band was known, one woman filled a house alone, her dress was spread on bulg'ring hoops as big as barnyard coons; she didn't show her legs or heels, and people thought she went on wheels. Her praises by all bards were sung, long long ago, when I was young; man used his head and not his lung. But things have retrograded since, and now the world is but a quince, and when I die the whole shebang will slip its trolley and go hang.

ROCK

Rock, Nov. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Will Atkinson entertained at a neighborhood Halloween party Friday evening. The house was illuminated with Jack-o'-lanterns, pumpkins and black cats. Games were in keeping with the evening, and many a story the witch did foretell. A five course luncheon was served. It was a very happy party that broke up at midnight, thinking their hostess a royal entertainer.

Mrs. Ed. Kelly of Minneapolis, Minnesota, was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James Beswick last week.

Mrs. M. S. Kellogg returned from a visit with Whitewater relatives recently.

Mrs. Mary C. Otis left yesterday for Kankakee, Ill., where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Will C. Schneider.

Farmers are busy shredding corn, finishing up their fall work.

Mrs. E. G. Noyes has returned from a visit with her brother in Dubuque, Iowa.

Tobacco buyers are on our streets these days.

Miss Mamie Waterman entertained a few friends at dinner Friday in honor of Miss Ella Lee, who is soon to leave for Los Angeles, Cal., to make her home.

Halloween passed away very quietly in this vicinity.

JOHNSTOWN

Johnstown, Nov. 3.—A baby boy was welcomed to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Loomer Oct. 30.

Friends have received invitations to the wedding of Allen Bronson of Millard and Miss Amanda Wolke of Clover Valley, Thursday afternoon, November 6th.

Hugh Mawhinney and family will move to the tenant farm of R. W. Taylor, having rented it for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hugin of La Prairie, Mr. and Mrs. W. Jones attended a birthday anniversary dinner Sunday at the home of H. Cunningham, Janesville, in honor of his seventy-fifth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Wood of Harmony were Sunday guests at W. Hall's.

Miss McCauley, teacher in District

BRODHEAD

Brodhead, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Danke was a passenger to Madison Saturday for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roderick spent Saturday in Janesville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Darby went to Madison Saturday to see the Wisconsin-Minnesota football game.

Mrs. O. J. Barr was the guest of friends in Janesville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stair had business in Madison Saturday.

Mrs. G. D. Richardson and Miss Minnie Olson spent Saturday in Janesville.

Miss Mabel Johnson went to Milwaukee Saturday, where she is the guest of her sister, Miss Gustie Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Roderick of Juda were guests of his parents on Saturday.

Alfred Karney was up from Beloit on Sunday, the guest of his mother and sister, Mrs. A. L. Karney and Miss Jennie Karney.

Mrs. Taylor Swann was called to Beloit Sunday by the serious illness of her stepfather, Rev. T. J. Lewis.

Miss Tina Horne of Janesville spent Sunday in Brodhead the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Horne.

Barney Loser of Beloit Sundayed at the home of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Murray.

Leo Searles was out from Chicago to spend Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Searles and family. His family, La Farge with his wife's parents.

O. J. Barr left Sunday afternoon for a hunting trip near Lamson. He will be absent two or three weeks.

Miss Alice Rossiter of Orfordville was a Sunday visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill.

Willis Osborn of Beloit Sundayed at the home of his parents.

Will Murray and family of Davenport, Iowa, are guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Murray.

Miss Bertha Mayers was up from Janesville to spend Sunday with her parents.

C. C. Stone of Chicago was here on business for a few days and returned Sunday.

Miss Dunn of Orfordville was a Sunday guest of Miss Rene Emminger.

Misses Ruth Stair and Dorothy Murphy returned Sunday afternoon from a short visit with friends in Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wagner of Beloit spent Sunday with his father, Mr. Samuel Wagner.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid Society will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. G. E. Dixon at which time refreshments will be served.

ALBION

Albion, Nov. 3.—Miss Elva Tontow went to Mt. Horeb recently to conduct a teachers' school of instruction.

The Misses Adlene Green and Marion Bliven were Milton visitors Thursday.

Miss Gladys Drake was the hostess of a Halloween party given by the pupils of the upper room of the Albion graded school Thursday night.

Louis Green and family, Mrs. Joseph Green and Miss Edna Emerson were Milton visitors one day last week.

Miss Louise Stark visited with relatives in Janesville Friday and Saturday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Reinholdt Maas Wednesday.

Misses Elsie Thomas and Vine Nobe were home from Milton Saturday and Sunday.

The Halloween party given by A. A. Smith at the chapel hall Saturday night was well attended. The evening was spent in playing various kinds of games and refreshments were served at a stated hour. The guests departed at a late hour, saying they had had a very enjoyable evening, which would not very soon be forgotten.

George Hall and Antone Olson each received a double deck of lambs, bought in the Chicago market during the last week, which were taken to their farms for winter feedings.

Albert Stark of Janesville was a business caller at C. P. Stark's Friday.

The Misses Hazel Emerson and Kittie Hayes are visiting with friends and relatives at the Madison Sanitarium and Madison for a few days.

Miss Elsie Clark of Edgerton spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mildred and Wilfred Palmeter.

Miss Ruth Olson has returned home after a brief visit with friends in Sun Prairie.

SOUTH FULTON

South Fulton, Nov. 3.—November is here, but there has been no bright day weather here this year. We all hope that it will not forget to come. Better late than never.

A surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grunzel last Tuesday evening by a number of their friends and neighbors walking in and making themselves at home. A pleasant time was had by all and a goodly number of gifts left to remind them that it was their wedding anniversary.

Mark Thompson visited relatives in Milton Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shuman welcomed a son at their home last Thursday, Oct. 30.

Miss Lucene Cadman visited friends at Whitewater the latter part of the week.

Lester Thomson, who is working in Janesville, spent over Sunday at home.

Mrs. Louisa Wylie is visiting relatives at Fulton.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Clark Kidder next Thursday morning, Nov. 7.

Mr. Smith has gone to Indiana to prepare to move here. He will bring his family back with him.

Lizzie and Grace Thompson spent Saturday afternoon at James Thompson's.

The Advance creamery started their new route on the Friday Monday.

Leslie Stark was removed from the Mercy hospital Saturday to his uncle's, Mr. Mape's. His mother is there caring for him.

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL—Union Pacific Line

Leaves Chicago daily at 10:45 a. m. from Union Station, Canal and Adams Sts. Arrives third morning, San Francisco 8:30 a. m.; Los Angeles 10 a. m. Steel equipment, drawing room and compartment sleepers and library observation sleepers. Latest type tourist sleepers. Excellent dining car service.

OW! Corns? Use "GETS-IT"

"GETS-IT" the New-Plan Corn Cure, Makes Any Corn Shrivels, Vanish. You'll say, "It don't never do no quick 'GETS-IT' got rid of that corn. It's all magic." "GETS-IT" gets every corn, every time, as sure as the sun rises. It takes about 2 seconds to apply and corns stop, you forget the corn, the corn shrivels up, and it's gone! Ever try anything like that? You never did. There's no more fussing with plasters that press on the corn, no more salves that take off the surrounding flesh, no more bandages. No more knives, glass razors that make corns grow, and cause danger of blood poisoning. "GETS-IT" is equally harmless to healthy or irritated skin. It gets rid of corns, wart, callus and bunions you've got. "GETS-IT" is sold at all druggists' at 25 cents a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence Co., Chicago.

What is Woman's Beauty But Health

And the Basis of Her Health and Vigor Lies in the Careful Regulation of the Bowels.

If woman's beauty depended upon cosmetics, every woman would be a picture of loveliness. But beauty lies deeper than that. It lies in health. In the majority of cases the basis of health, and the cause of sickness, can be traced to the action of the bowels. The headaches, the lassitude, the sallow skin, and the lusterless eyes are usually due to constipation. So many things that women do habitually conduce to this trouble. They do not eat carefully, they eat indigestible foods because the foods are served daintily and they do not exercise enough. But whatever the cause, the cause may be it is important that the condition should be corrected.

An ideal remedy for women, and one especially suited to their delicate requirements, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which thousands of women endorse highly, among them Mrs. C. S. Vance, of 511 S. Ray St., New Castle, Pa. At times she had spells of indigestion so severe that she thought she would die. Syrup Pepsin regulated her stomach and bowels, and she attributes her excellent health today to this remedy.

All the family can use Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, for thousands of mothers give it to babies and children. It is also admirably suited to the requirements of elderly people, in fact to all who by reason of age or infirmity cannot stand harsh salts, cathartics, pills or purgatives. These should always be avoided, for the best laxative is only for that day, while a gentle

MRS. C. S. VANCE.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin acts mildly but permanently. It can be conveniently obtained at any drug store at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded. You will find it gentle in action, pleasant in taste, and free from gripping and its tonic properties have a distinct value to women. It is the most widely used laxative- tonic in America today and thousands of families are now never without it.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

CLINTON

Clinton, Nov. 4.—D. T. Boner has moved his candy and cigar store from the Mayhew Block on East side of Main street to the North room of the Babst block.

Miss Hannah Voorbeez visited two of her cousins in Beloit Thursday, who are contemplating an extensive trip. Christ N. Holtum is away on a business trip for the Holttum Manufacturing Company.

General Albert Thorson of Beloit was here on Friday.

Miss Dorethea Lloyd of Beloit schools came up Friday evening to visit at his home.

Misses Hall and Weyer of our school force spent Saturday and Sunday in Madison.

William Halin, Harry Everhart and Fay Latta went to Madison for the football game, returning Sunday evening.

Arthur Wobig of Milwaukee was here Saturday visiting his parents and other relatives.

F. R. Halmer went to Madison Saturday morning to see the football game and visit his son John. They both went to Spring Green, Wis., to spend Sunday with Miss Grace Helmer.

Rev. and Mrs. Clough were in Janesville Saturday.

Oscar Wingate went to Rockford Saturday evening to visit friends over Sunday.

J. A. Hamilton and R. G. Klingbell were in Chicago on business. While there Mr. Hamilton sustained a very narrow escape from painful injuries in a fall. As they were walking along Monroe street a large wooden nail full of water fell from the window ledge of a fifth story story and just grazed Mr. Hamilton's coat sleeve and flattened out on the side walk at his feet.

W. W. Dalton and family visited relatives in Janesville over Sunday.

The Rockford Jewelers Club entertained the Southern Wisconsin Jewelers' Club at a banquet in their city Monday night.

G. J. Pelf and Miss Ella Eardman spent Sunday in Janesville.

The basso solo recited by Paul McKinney Sunday morning at the Congregational church was one of the finest musical treats ever heard in Clinton and the large audience was charmed by the purity and richness of his voice.

Mrs. S. G. Smith and two daughters spent Sunday in Evansville.

Mrs. G. R. Crabtree was taken ill at the Methodist church Sunday evening during services.

ALBION

Albion, Nov. 3.—Miss Elva Tontow went to Mt. Horeb recently to conduct a teachers' school of instruction.

The Misses Adlene Green and Marion Bliven were Milton visitors Thursday.

Miss Gladys Drake was the hostess of a Halloween party given by the pupils of the upper room of the Albion graded school Thursday night.

Louis Green and family, Mrs. Joseph Green and Miss Edna Emerson were Milton visitors one day last week.

Miss Louise Stark visited with relatives in Janesville Friday and Saturday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Reinholdt Maas Wednesday.

Misses Elsie Thomas and Vine Nobe were home from Milton Saturday and Sunday.

The Halloween party given by A. A. Smith at the chapel hall Saturday night was well attended. The evening was spent in playing various kinds of games and refreshments were served at a stated hour. The guests departed at a late hour, saying they had had a very enjoyable evening, which would not very soon be forgotten.

George Hall and Antone Olson each received a double deck of lambs, bought in the Chicago market during the last week, which were taken to their farms for winter feedings.

Albert Stark of Janesville was a business caller at C. P. Stark's Friday.

The Misses Hazel Emerson and Kittie Hayes are visiting with friends and relatives at the Madison Sanitarium and Madison for a few days.

Miss Elsie Clark of Edgerton spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mildred and Wilfred Palmeter.

Miss Ruth Olson has returned home after a brief visit with friends in Sun Prairie.

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL—Union Pacific Line

Leaves Chicago daily at 10:45 a. m. from Union Station, Canal and Adams Sts. Arrives third morning, San Francisco 8:30 a. m.; Los Angeles 10 a. m. Steel equipment, drawing room and compartment sleepers and library observation sleepers. Latest type tourist sleepers. Excellent dining car service.

OW! Corns? Use "GETS-IT"

"GETS-IT" the New-Plan Corn Cure, Makes Any Corn Shrivels, Vanish. You'll say, "It don't never do no quick 'GETS-IT' got rid of that corn. It's all magic." "GETS-IT" gets every corn, every time, as sure as the sun rises. It takes about 2 seconds to apply and corns stop, you forget the corn, the corn shrivels up, and it's gone! Ever try anything like that? You never did. There's no more fussing with plasters that press on the corn, no more salves that take off the surrounding flesh, no more bandages. No more knives, glass razors that make corns grow, and cause danger of blood poisoning. "GETS-IT" is equally harmless to healthy or irritated skin. It gets rid of corns, wart, callus and bunions you've got. "GETS-IT" is sold at all druggists' at 25 cents a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence Co., Chicago.

Daily Thought

Heaven means to be one with God.—Confucius.

THE CALIFORNIA COAST

country offers the winter vacationist more than can be found anywhere else in the United States.

Forget its romantic and fanciful side, and consider it from the practical and economical side alone.

Wintering in California is inexpensive. A cozy, rose-bowered bungalow, in a balmy climate, on the shore of the lazy, blue Pacific, unlimited quantities of fresh fruits and vegetables at most reasonable prices, can be rented furnished for from twenty-five to sixty-five dollars monthly. Can you live as pleasantly or as economically at home?

Trolley cars reach many of the world famous resorts. Write for booklets.

Pacific Limited

Leaves Chicago daily at 10:45 a. m. from Union Station, Canal and Adams Sts. Arrives third morning, San Francisco 8:30 a. m.; Los Angeles 10 a. m. Steel equipment, drawing room and compartment sleepers and library observation sleepers. Latest type tourist sleepers. Excellent dining car service.

CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE & ST. PAUL—Union Pacific Line

Ogden to San Francisco via Southern Pacific
Ogden to Los Angeles via Salt Lake Route

W. W. Winton, D. P. A.
Madison, Wisconsin
414 Buckingham
913 Majestic Bldg.
Ogden, Utah
W. G. Neimyer, G. A.
55 W. Jackson Blvd.
Chicago
Geo. M. Sargent, G. A.
112 S. Clark St.
Chicago

LOS ANGELES

That Is True

"Coffee drinking almost ruined my health before a heart and nerve specialist informed me that coffee was my whole trouble.

"I am 53 years of age, and from boyhood up to about the year 1900 I was strong and well, could eat any kind of food day or night, slept soundly, and it was said I had no nerves.

"I began to suffer from indigestion and was getting sleepless and nervous I took medicine, kept at work, and stuck to my coffee — the harm of it was never suggested to me.

"One morning just after dressing I collapsed, and for six weeks I was very, very sick. But I pulled through. After another rest I did not improve, but became worse. My heart got very bad, so weak at times that I would faint. I also suffered from constipation.

"In February, 1908, I was obliged to resign my position as manager.

"Finally in July, 1911, I came to San Francisco to consult the best heart and nerve specialist to be found, and was directed to Dr. ——. He made a thorough examination and several blood tests. He told me that the trouble was with my heart and nerves — brought about by coffee; that the caffeine contained in coffee was poison to me; and to stop the use of coffee absolutely and immediately. Since that time I have not tasted one drop of coffee.

"When I stopped coffee, I thought what shall I drink. Milk has a tendency to constipate me; cold water is all right in its place, but it doesn't belong on the breakfast table. So I concluded to try Postum. It is delicious with cream and sugar. I drink it whenever I can find it, and I enjoy it as well as I once did coffee.

"My normal weight was about 170 lbs. and I had been as low as 133. In three weeks I was greatly improved; in six months I began to feel like my old self, and now, ten months after I stopped coffee, I am about well and weigh 178 lbs. I have not been constipated once—no once! My stomach seems as good as ever; I sleep well, feel well, and I am well.

"I am sure my good doctor's advice, 'stop coffee,' is the secret of my improvement.

"Of course I have it in' for coffee, and why shouldn't I? See what it cost me, my health, position and thousands of dollars.

"Now in conclusion, you are at liberty to use my name any way you wish. I enclose names of my doctors. My only object is to help other afflicted persons. I don't want any compensation, and would not accept any.

LARAMIE MAYER,
703 Jackson St.,
Oakland, Calif.

Postum now comes in two forms

REGULAR POSTUM must be well boiled.

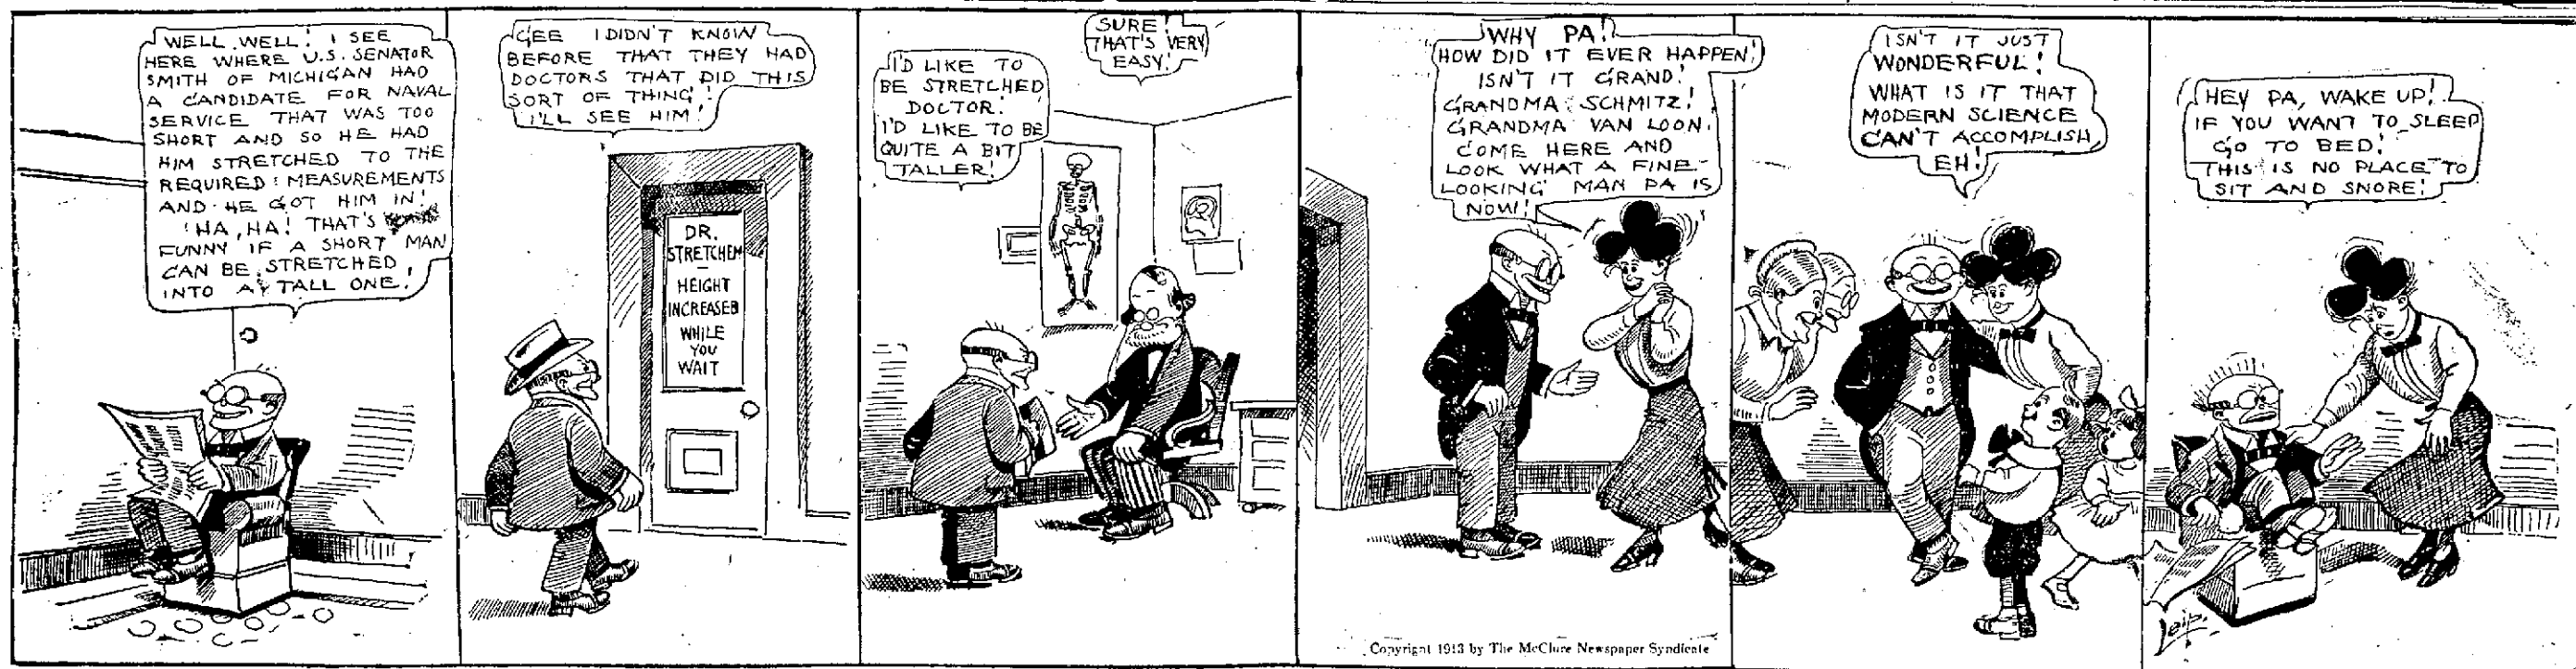

INSTANT POSTUM is a soluble powder. A spoonful dissolves in a cup of hot water and, with sugar and cream, makes a perfect cup INSTANTLY.

Grocers everywhere sell both kinds.

A mighty army of former coffee drinkers now use

POSTUM

"There's a Reason"

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—Father must have been indulging in Cheese cakes again—

By F. LEIPZIGER

WOMAN'S ILLS DISAPPEARED

Like Magic after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

North Bangor, N. Y.—“As I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with great benefit I feel it my duty to write and tell you about it. I was ailing from female weakness and had headache and backache nearly all the time. I was later every month than I should have been and so sick that I had to go to bed.

“Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me well and these troubles have disappeared like magic. I have recommended the Compound to many women who have used it successfully.”—Mrs. JAMES J. STACY, R.F.D. No. 3, North Bangor, N. Y.

Another Made Well.

Ann Arbor, Mich.—“Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for me. For years I suffered terribly with hemorrhages and had pains so intense that sometimes I would faint away. I had female weakness so bad that I had to doctor all the time and never found relief until I took your remedies to please my husband. I recommend your wonderful medicine to all sufferers as I think it is a blessing for all women.”—Mrs. L. E. WYCKOFF, 112 S. Ashley St., Ann Arbor, Mich.

There need be no doubt about the ability of this grand old remedy, made from the roots and herbs of our fields, to remedy women's diseases. We possess volumes of proof of this fact, enough to convince the most skeptical. Why don't you try it?

Successful

in all the numerous ailments caused by defective or irregular action of the organs of digestion and elimination—certain to prevent suffering and to improve the general health—

BEECHAM'S PILLS

Sold everywhere. In boxes, 10c., 25c.

OUR COAL IS CLEAN

We sell coal that is free from dirt, dust and as nearly free from slate as it is possible to prepare it.

Put in your coal now while the stock is good and the weather is decent.

H. P. RATZLOW & CO.
TIFFANY, WIS.

Mother Stanislaus Tells of Recovery

Throat troubles, like continued coughs and colds, often seriously affect the lungs. If you have not found any improvement from the treatment you have tried, investigate the many reports showing the benefits and, in numerous cases, complete recoveries, brought about by the use of Eckman's Alternative. This is a medicine for Throat and Lung troubles, favorably known for more than fifteen years. Read this case:—
“Convent of St. Anne, Sanford, Minn.—‘Gentlemen: In February, 1911, four doctors examined my throat and pronounced the necessity of an operation. Having heard at Peckskill, N. Y., Motherhouse of the Sisters of St. Francis, where I was visiting, of Eckman's Alternative, I determined as a last resort to try it. After taking four or five bottles large pieces of diseased tissue came away. I continued the Alternative, to my regretful and daily relief. In ten months I was restored to perfect health. I would be glad to write or talk to any person who may have a doubt about it. I would like them to see and hear from my own lips, if they so desire, all I would say of it.’ (Signed) MOTHER M. STANISLAUS.
(Above abbreviated; more on request.)
“Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Croup, Asthma, Stomachic Colic, and in dispelling the system, containing no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman's Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists and Smith Drug Co., McCue & Buss, Peoples' Drug Co., in Jansville.

HOLTON of THE NAVY

A Story of the Pressing of Oak

By LAWRENCE FERRY
Author of "Dan Marlowe"
"Prince of Chautauque," etc.
Illustrations
by Ellsworth Young

Copyright, A. C. McClure & Co., Inc.
Published in Great Britain.
CHAPTER XII.

Destroying a Fleet.

It was well past dawn when Holton awoke. He was in a panic of fear that he had permitted valuable time to elapse. He rose to his feet stiffly and broke through the bushes until the blue sea lay beneath him. His eyes were strained to the left, where the stern of the flagship was swinging toward him. He noticed black smoke belching from the funnels. Evidently the New York was leaving her station when the ships of the enemy were preparing to come out of the harbor where they had been bottled up for so long.

Cold sweat stood out upon Holton's forehead, and, hastily throwing aside his coat and tearing off his shirt, he took from beneath it a white signal flag, which he had carried around his body for days against just this emergency.

Breaking off a branch and knotting the corners of the flag to it, he sprang tensely into position.

The flagship was leaving beyond peradventure. Her stern was still toward him, and it was growing smaller. The admiral going away of all times! In desperation he raced along the hill, trying to catch an angle where his signaling would be seen.

Finally, seeing the futility of further running, Holton stopped, and began swinging the flag right left, right left, with frantic energy. For five, ten minutes he repeated the T. E. call, but without eliciting the slightest response, and so, ceasing his exertions he watched the New York move away with tears springing from his eyes.

The Brooklyn had swung broadside to him, and the picturesque ram bow and the tall funnels were as cleanly cut against the sea as a cameo. Admiral Schley, he knew, was on board her, and must of necessity be the commander-in-chief pending Sampson's return. So it was to this rakish craft that he now turned his attention.

She Sprang in Front of Holton.

Walking to a point as nearly abreast of her as he could get, he began snapping the flag right and left, in the effort to attract her attention. If he could only get her now, and could deliver his message, there was no doubt that the New York could be recalled by a signal gun. So simple did this seem that he wondered why he had not thought of it before.

He swung his flag with fresh ardor, but it was as though he were signaling to Mars, so far as any answer was concerned. Holton could see a launch leaving the Indiana for the Massachusetts. Everything was peaceful. From the city drifted the sweet notes of the matin bells and through the trees he could catch glimpses of the red roofs and the blues and greens and browns of the houses of Santiago.

Holton redoubled his efforts with the flag. It seemed as if he had moved his arms to and fro for an hour without response. He had to rest. He lowered the flag and was leaning on the staff when suddenly from the bridge of the Brooklyn he saw a flutter of bunting.

As he looked he read that vessel's call letter. No doubt now they had seen his signal and were making inquiries. Quickly raising his flag over his head he repeated his E. E. call and then, as he caught the answering flashes of white from the Brooklyn, he began his messages. And this is how it read:

"Message to admiral from Lieutenant Holton."

"All right. Ready."

"Cervera's fleet will leave the harbor this morning."

There was a pause. Holton waved his flag frantically.

"Did you get it?"

There was still no answer. Finally it came.

"Repeat."

Holton scowled.

"Cervera's fleet will leave the harbor this morning."

There was another pause.

"Who are you?"

"Lieutenant Holton, United States navy."

After a short wait the flag on the Brooklyn flashed again.

"The admiral sends his compliments—and his thanks."

There followed several up and down movements of the flag, indicating that Admiral Schley had received all he wanted to know and that his mind was already turning to more important matters of the hour.

As Holton threw his flag aside and turned shoreward he saw two tall columns of black smoke arising from the direction of the harbor. They were coming!

He dashed for his flag, but even as he did so he saw the flash of a tier of guns from Morro and Socapa, and then suddenly, as he glanced down toward the mouth of the bay, he saw a leaden-colored cruiser, with yellow and red flag of Spain snapping defiantly from her jack-staff, appear from behind the hills, and then, as a panther dashes from a cave in the mouth of which hunters have kindled a fire, she turned to the right and dashed into the open sea.

Astern of her followed another of the fleet, and another, and another. Then two grim destroyers appeared. The enemy had broken from cover.

It seemed an age, but it was not more than a few seconds, when a terrific roar shook the waters, and a burst of flame and gases rolled from a turret of one of the American ships.

Holton marked the course of the great thirteen-inch shell, saw the great, dark shape dart with lightning speed toward the Viscaya, saw it hurtle over the deck, ricochet on the water, and explode in the woods beyond. Then the earth shook with fearful noise.

From all the American ships, and from those of the Spaniards, great guns vomited forth their messengers of death and destruction. The sky grew dark, and a yellowish pall settled upon the sea.

As Holton stood tense, following the combat as in a trance, he heard a tremendous explosion, and saw the Maria Theresa list sharply, and then saw her turn in toward the land, where she soon grounded. He could see men clinging to her decks.

It was clear that the American vessels were overhauling the enemy's ships, although Holton had understood that, as regards speed, our vessels were inferior. The discharge of guns was incessant. Almost directly beneath him he saw two Spanish destroyers disengage themselves from the larger vessels and swing about, evidently with the intention of returning to the harbor; but, like a hawk, a long, rakish American craft, a converted yacht, pounced down upon them, letting fly with her machine guns and six-pounders as she came.

The torpedo boats fought back with all the venom of maddened serpents, but gallant Wainwright and the Gloucester were not to be denied, and, under the fury of his onset, the two destroyers succumbed like craft of cardboard, disabled and sinking within the course of what seemed to Holton a very few minutes.

He could see two or three of the larger Spanish vessels aground now, flames seething from hatchways, the men of the crew leaping into the sea. Lifboats from the American vessels were among them, attending to the work of rescue as diligently as, but a few moments before, they had set themselves to the task of dealing death to their foes.

Two or three faint cheers drifted shoreward, but for the most part there was silence. Boats manned by American sailors were about all the Spanish vessels, which, having left the harbor so proudly and so defiantly but a little while before, were now merely smoking, burning wrecks.

The cannonading had ceased; the mist was blowing away; the sun once more was smiling on the waters. Far down, Holton could see the Oregon, Texas and Brooklyn speeding after two flying remnants of Cervera's squadron and he heard the call of Wainwright's men below.

Thus gazing down, it was with difficulty that Holton realized that an epoch-making battle had just taken place under his eyes. It seemed all like a thrilling drama, and now everything, by comparison, was so still, so placid.

Casting his eyes to the left, he saw to his surprise the New York standing by and making signals to the fleet. As he found out later, she had gone to Siboney for a conference with Shafter. Now, attracted by the cannonading, she had made for her station with all possible speed.

"Well, it was over. What would happen now? The harbor forts were still to be subdued, and it was out of the question that Sampson would attempt to rush them this day. No, Holton could see that the army still had its part to play, and that, as a consequence, his work was far from completed.

His duty was perfectly clear; and while he was able to drag one foot after another, its stern behests were to be obeyed. His place was at Garcia's headquarters—the sooner he took it the better.

After a last, lingering look at the scene below he turned inland, but had not gone more than two hundred yards when he realized that his sore feet were not adapted to rapid progress.

In short, he felt that, as compared to his normal condition, he was but half a man, and a very miserable and pitiful half at that. Still, with frequent halts he made his way toward the American lines, and by dusk he was again among the rifle-pits of the army.

The Earth Shook With Fearful Noise

A flag of truce was wandering over the hillside, and in answer to Holton's query an officer told him that General Shafter was sending in word to Toral that, now the fleet was destroyed, he had better surrender and have done with further bloodshed. So everyone waited until the truce party returned from its mission.

They had not made, it was learned, great progress with the Spanish commander. He was quite content with the situation, he said, and, moreover, he had good information that the men from the United States were not doing very well in this climate.

In a word, he thought it advisable to oppose to the utmost extremity the advance of the Americans. A reply similar in its nature had been sent to Admiral Sampson, who, as though in spite, dropped a few shells into the city, and then desisted in order to give Toral time for the thirteen-inch messengers to sing home.

The destruction of Cervera's fleet was regarded as having simplified the task that lay before the Americans, but no one knew exactly what the developments would be. The general surmise was that Toral would eventually surrender, and it was the case there was disinclination on the part of the brigade commanders to shed unnecessary blood.

In the morning Holton was awakened by a bombardment which continued for half an hour. The men in the trenches got into action with their Krags and the Spaniards responded. The result was a spirited session, which ended as abruptly as it began.

The next development was the inevitable flag of truce trailing toward the Spanish lines, borne by messengers from Shafter sent to inquire of Toral if he had not yet changed his mind about holding out.

As Holton could see no special reason why the Spaniard should have changed his mind, he was inclined to regard the truce business as a joke, a sentiment which most of the officers shared with him. Toward noon he made his way along the lines, and, eventually, he located the Cuban contingent.

Garcia was seated in front of his tent with General Castillo. He remembered Holton and greeted him pleasantly. Yet he appeared to have something on his mind, and after welcoming the navy man he turned to his brother general and continued a conversation which the officer's arrival had evidently interrupted. Holton, not wishing to appear as an intruder, moved to one side.

The soldiers were sullen and regarded the new-comer with evident dislike. He tried to engage several of them in conversation, but with no success.

To a sergeant, who had turned his shoulder upon him, he said with some impatience:

"What's the matter with you, anyway?"

"You will find out soon," was the reply.

(To be continued.)

Dinner Stories

Hubby was in a bad temper. He was late in getting up, and then he cut himself while shaving. So he reached the breakfast table scowling blackly.

"Look here, Mary," he said crossly to his wife, "you've made me late again, and I asked you specially to wake me up at 8."

"And I did call you at 8 by my watch," said Mary calmly.

"When your watch must be slow."

"Well, I can't help that. I asked you what time it was when you came home last night. My watch said it was 2 o'clock, but you said it was

Facts for Drinkers

FIRST: Liquor Drinking robs a man of earning ability.

SECOND: It ruins the health and causes untold misery.

THIRD: No one knowingly will employ a drinking man.

FOURTH: It causes loss of respect, broken homes, poverty, crime, prison sentences and insanity.

THE NEAL TREATMENT
Removes all craving, appetite or desire for liquor and makes a new man of the drinker.

THEN WHY CONTINUE DRINKING?

THE NEAL INSTITUTE

444 CASS STREET, Milwaukee, Wisconsin
One Block North of New Insurance Building.

only midnight. So I set my watch

A Yorkshireman suffering from toothache went to a dentist to have the aching tooth pulled out. The dentist pulled out the offending tooth, and was then asked to pull out the double tooth next to it.

"But that is a sound tooth," said the dentist. "The pain is only sympathetic."

"Yank it out, doctor. Hang such sympathy," replied the Tyke.

right by you!"

When the Children Cough Use MUSTEROLE!

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup. And then's when you're glad you have a jar of MUSTEROLE at hand to give prompt, sure relief. It positively does not blister the tender skin.

As first aid and a certain remedy there's nothing like MUSTEROLE. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar in the house.

It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Ton-

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Then you will have a clean and healthy scalp. No more hair loss. No more rough, scraggly hair. Does not color. Ask Your Doctor.

J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Are You Going to New York Soon?

WRITE

Hotel Raymond,

42 EAST 28th STREET,

(At Subway Station)

NEW YORK CITY

for Pocket Guide and Special weekly rate to Buyers and Parties. Single Room $1.50 a day, or $9.00 a week.

MARK A. CADWELL

(Mention this paper.)

Jansville merchants always keep the most up-to-date stock of goods in the state—patronize them and help boost the town.

AUCTION!

Having decided to quit farming I will sell at Public Auction, on my farm, 7 miles south of Jansville on the town line road, 1 mile west of the town line bridge in the town of Rock, 6 miles north of Beloit, and 2 miles southeast of Afton, on

Wednesday, Nov. 12, 1913

Commencing at 10 o'clock, sharp, the following described property:

6 HEAD OF HORSES

1 bay horse, 5 years old; 1 sorrel mare, 7 years old; 1 sorrel mare, 8 years old; 1 black horse, 10 years old; 1 gray mare with foal, 17 years old, and 1 colt, 5 months old.

7 HEAD OF CATTLE

Five milk cows and two heifers.

10 hogs and brood sow with 10 pigs and about 100 chickens.

1 stack of oat straw; 1 stack of rye straw; about 22 acres of corn in shock; about 10 ton ear corn; about 350 bushels of oats and about 5 ton of timothy hay.

FARM MACHINERY, ETC.:

Deering grain binder, Milwaukee corn binder, Great Western manure spreader, Jansville gang plow, John Deere sulky plow, hand plow, potato digger, 2 sulky corn cultivators, 2 hand cultivators, 14 disk harrow nearly new, hay mower, Hay rake, corn planter, tobacco setter, lump crusher, grain drill, new wagon box, 2 hay racks, tobacco rack, 3 farm wagons platform buggy top buggy, Road wagon, 1 set 3 section drags, 2 sets of work harness, set of driving harness, single harness, cream separator and churn, 2 incubators, tank heater and scale.

FARM FOR SALE

Also at the same time and date I will offer at public sale, my farm, consisting of 76 acres of choice land with a No. 1 building, a 9-room house equipped with acetylene light and in first class condition; barn No. 1 is 40x44 with basement, will stanchion 21 cows and 7 horses; will hold about 35 tons of hay; barn No. 2 is 20x24, will hold 3000 bushels of grain; double corn crib, 28x32; feed house 16x20; good frame tobacco shed, 6 acre capacity; chicken and feed house, 2-story, 18x33. All in splendid condition. Farm which will be sold at the same time and place. Easy terms at 5 per cent interest. If you are looking for a first class proposition don't overlook this opportunity. The farm will be sold at 2 o'clock sharp.

A FREE LUNCH SERVED AT NOON.

TERMS OF SALE: All sums of $10.00 and under, cash; on sums over that amount 1 year's time will be given on good bankable paper, with interest at 6 per cent. No goods to be removed until satisfactorily settled for.

W. T. DOOLEY, Auctioneer.

JOHN LINDE, Prop.

CLIP THIS COUPON

FREE COUPON

IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY

PATTERN OUTFIT

PRESENTED BY

THE GAZETTE

To indicate you are a regular reader you must present Six Coupons like this one.

THE IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY OUTFIT is guaranteed to be the greatest collection and biggest bargain in patterns ever offered. The 160 patterns have a retail value of 10 cents each, or more than $10.00 in all. Bring SIX Coupons and 68 cents to this office and you will be presented with One Complete Outfit, including Book of Instructions and one All Metal Hoop. The 68 cents is to cover duty, express, handling and the numerous overhead expenses of getting the package from factory to you.

N. B.—Out of Town Readers will add 7 cents extra for postage and expense of mailing.

